Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

- a. The main object of the charity is to promote African heritage in Scotland and in particular the socio-economic interests of the people of the kingdom of Buganda through the establishment of cross-cultural links between the people of Buganda and the kingdom's allies in Scotland.
- b. To establish discussion forums on issues of African Cultural Diversity as experienced in the diaspora so as to identify means to further enrich the cultural fabric of Scotland in unison with the cultural values of the Kingdom of Buganda.
- c. To promote the strategic vision of the kingdom of Buganda for its people living in Scotland by building networks with various Scottish institutions and other cultural institutions based in Scotland.
- d. To develop creative networks in the arts and social-enterprise to further the cause of cross-cultural promotion and inspire economic development through a multi-cultural African social-entrepreneurial approach based on the Buganda spirit of inclusion and respect for all humanity (Obuntu-bulamu).
- e. To create awareness in Scotland of the cultural heritage of Buganda and its peoples resident in Scotland and the United Kingdom at large.
- d. To develop the concept and run the annual Afro business-cultural Expo to be held once a year. This event is aimed to serve as a vehicle in the promotion of objectives 3.1 to 3.4. It will be an exhibition of arts and cultural crafts of African origin as well as seminars and talks on economic development largely focussing on the importance of monarchy in Africa. It will also be a platform for African businesses in Scotland to develop networks and build on their individual competitive advantages for further business growth.
- e. To host African personalities of social-cultural significance for seminars and cultural events in order to inspire the younger generations of Africans resident in Scotland.
- f. To publicise and create awareness of the issues that adversely affect the people of Buganda in Buganda and the diaspora in order to source and develop relevant partnerships for the alleviation of any such issues especially where concerned with the violation of basic human rights.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

- o With the advent of Covid-19 pandemic Buganda Scotland has been promoting the health and well-being of African and ethnic minorities families in Scotland experiencing social isolation by offering a support network that provides information and advice to improve their quality of life.
- o Our organisation has supported disadvantaged families from a low income background, reaching out to people with mental health issues, those with Covid-19 to deal with symptoms at home and providing updates on hygiene and immunity boosting ingredients. Talk therapies, checking on community members, through social media groups.
- o We have been funded to write stories of African families in Scotland. Additionally setting up the Buganda Scotland website. Hence two professionals have been commissioned to take the work forward, and it's underway.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustee's BUGANDA-SCOTLAND

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ending 31st March 2022

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulation does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

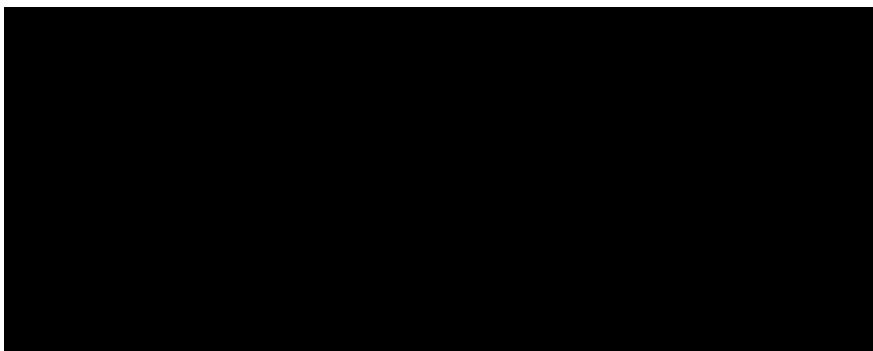

Basis of independent examiners statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and subsequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention-

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulation, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
