Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: We were set up to promote, develop and maintain classical studies in Aberdeen and the North of Scotland, which we do by running a series of events each year--mostly talks by visiting speakers, whether in person (on the University of Aberdeen's King's College campus) or online, but occasionally events at local schools.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are to promote, develop and maintain classical studies, and to increase public awareness of the contribution and importance of classics to education, culture and public life, in Aberdeen and the North of Scotland. Its funds and property shall be used solely for activities it deems conducive to these purposes. It will pursue these purposes by organising lectures and other educational and cultural events and activities, designed to interest and engage a range of age-groups and sections of the community, and by cooperating with other organisations which share its purposes in whole or in part, including the Classical Association of Scotland, with which it is affiliated.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
