Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The primary function of the charity is to establish a Jacobite museum and art gallery in order to advance the study into the Jacobite period of history

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The company's objects are the advancement of heritage and culture by: (a) The preservation of the site of the Battle of Falkirk Muir which took place to the south of Falkirk. (b) To honour and commemorate those who fell and all those who fought in the battle. (c) To operate a Visitor Centre close to the site of the battle which will inform visitors about all the Jacobite risings with particular emphasis on the '45 and the Battle of Falkirk Muir. (d) The Visitor Centre will comprise a museum that will display nationally significant collections of artefacts from the period and a temporary exhibition space to accommodate displays focusing on different topics of Jacobite interest. (e) The centre will house an education suite to encourage academic study, by all ages and abilities, into the Jacobite period using the museum's artefacts as a focus for the study. (f) The centre will operate both a cafe and shop.
