Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The group was registered with OSCR as a SCIO on 6th February 2020

The Constitution of this Charity was submitted to OSCR as part of the pre-registration documentation and remained unchanged at 31st August 2021, the end of the financial year.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

A steering group was formed at a meeting organised by the Scottish Pilgrim Routes Forum in April 2019. When this group became a SCIO, it appointed five of its existing members as trustees by common consent. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were invited to become trustees after the group had become a SCIO as it was felt that they had skills which would be useful to the group. Their appointments were approved at trustee's meetings.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

As laid out in our constitution, the purposes of the group are to advance the arts, heritage and culture for the benefit of the public in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. We will do this by

1. Raising funds to re-establish the medieval pilgrimage walking route between St Duthac's in Tain and St Magnus' in Kirkwall.
2. Developing and maintaining the route in partnership with other interested parties
3. Promoting the heritage and culture to be found on the route

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The activities of the group fall into four areas.

Communicating with the public (helping to meet purposes 1 and 3)

1. organising newspaper articles; giving talks to schools and groups. Two talks were given during 22/23
2. web site, to include historical research as well as details of the route
3. distributing leaflets
4. producing a guide book for sale to walkers
5. a trustee has written a 'walkers companion' giving relevant notes about the places walked through.

Developing the routes (helping to meet purposes 2 and 3)

6. liaising with landlords
7. liaising with the John O'Groats Trail Group
8. gaining permission for signage and information panels
9. providing religious/spiritual input by listing the churches on the way in the guidebook and having information on historical religious sites on the website

The Spittal Site (helping to meet purposes 2 and 3)

The five information panels at the hall, giving information on the archaeological and religious history of the area, continue to attract visitors

Ensuring the ongoing success of the project (helping to meet all purposes)

- a. A web site is used to raise funds to pay for its annual fee by
 - i. hosting advertising from local accommodation providers and other relevant businesses
 - ii. selling the guide book and pilgrim tokens
 - iii. accepting donations
- b. there is a membership fee, currently £10.
- c. the leaflet is distributed widely to all the usual tourism venues
- d. our membership of SPRF ensures nation-wide publicity
- e. we are happy to give talks to groups and schools to stimulate interest in the project

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Communicating with the public:

- we have had several newspaper articles
- A web site is live at www.northernpilgrimsWay.co.uk
- We have a page on the British Pilgrimage Trust's website
- We have leaflets showing the route and giving some brief details of the project. These are distributed to a wide variety of venues.
- We have a guidebook available for sale through the website and local tourism venues
- There is now a 'companion' book to the guidebook, available through the website, giving some background to the places that the pilgrim route passes through.

Developing the route:

- We are working closely with the John O'Groats Trail Group SCIO, who have developed a coastal walk from Inverness to John O' Groats. We are co-operating with the St Magnus Way Group on Orkney.
- We have permission to use roadside signs in Caithness and Sutherland for our directional signs
- We have walked parts of the route and have detailed descriptions for our website

Ensuring the on-going success of the project

- We distribute our leaflets throughout the region.
- We hold annual promotional events. The main event for 2025 was the erection of the reconstruction of the Skinnet Stone on 10th May. This was attended by visitors from across the Highlands and received widespread publicity. There are four information panels about the stone and the Northern Pilgrims' Way Group at the site.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Trustees ensure that there are sufficient funds held as a liquid reserve in the Charity's Bank to meet all committed demands and in addition hold an additional £350 as a contingency to cover any change in essential costs which may occur in the short term. No project will be started without a clear and ring-fenced funding stream which has been matched in detail to spend dates. A cash flow spreadsheet will be used by the Treasurer to monitor the accounts and highlight any potential divergence and action will be taken timeously in order to keep a positive balance.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
