Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: We are set up to provide accessible, inclusive, affordable pottery and mixed media classes in the heart of an area of high socio-economic deprivation. The bulk of people who enjoy our services are people with ASN, children and young people, and we provide these with the help both volunteer and waged staff (who are paid in accordance to the Living Wage). We also run a community garden from which high-quality organic food is shared and a beautiful green space enjoyed. We supplement our charitable provision by hosting pottery workshops and parties and by pursuing a wide range of fundraising opportunities. Youth Work principles inform our projects with young people and we are a Youth Highland Hub.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: (a) The advancement of education. (b) The provision or recreational activities and/or facilities with a view to improving the conditions of life of those for whom the activities/facilities are primarily intended. and (c) The advancement of the arts, heritage and culture.

Trustees' Annual Report 2025

Who We Are

The Clay Studio charity exists for the advancement of education, the arts, heritage and culture – all in the heart of the vibrant community of Merkinch, which sits in the top 5% areas of most deprivation in the SIMD.

We provide inclusive, accessible ceramic and mixed media opportunities for children, young people and adults, and run a community garden which grows organic fruit and vegetables amongst ornamental flowerbeds. Mosaics, made by groups from the studio, adorn the walls and the outdoor space hosts community events. Our studio is a place where confidence and skills grow through doing, and community happens naturally around shared making.

We believe everyone should have access to creativity, regardless of background or circumstance.

What We Delivered This Year

- Two weekly After School Classes for P1-P7
- Weekly Youth Clubs for P5-P7 and S1-S4
- Fortnightly Saturday Kids' Club
- Two-week Summer Club (Junior & Senior Groups)
- Two weekly Sunflower Groups (for people aged 25+ with disabilities)
- Weekly Butterfly Group (for people aged 16-25 with disabilities)
- 1:1 sessions for referred young people, enrolled onto Dynamic Youth Award and Youth Achievement Award pathways
- Evening Adult Pottery Classes
- 1:1 Sessions in Hand-Building
- Pottery Parties
- Affordable Studio Rental for local artists

- Partnerships with CAHMS & other Third-Sector organisations
- Ongoing maintenance of our open community garden and the hosting of events for other grassroots organisations

The studio remained busy and welcoming throughout the year, with classes and groups offering regular structure, creative challenge and social connection.

the 1990s, the incidence of S. flexneri infections has increased in the United Kingdom [10]. In the United States, S. flexneri has been reported as the most common cause of bacterial dysentery in children [11]. In the United Kingdom, S. flexneri is the most common cause of bacterial dysentery in children [12].

There is a paucity of data on the epidemiology of S. flexneri in the United Kingdom. The only published study of the epidemiology of S. flexneri in the United Kingdom was a case-control study of 10 cases of S. flexneri infection in 1987 [13]. The study found that the risk of S. flexneri infection was significantly increased in children who had been in contact with a case of S. flexneri infection [13].

The aim of this study was to determine the epidemiology of S. flexneri in the United Kingdom. The study was a case-control study of 10 cases of S. flexneri infection in 1990. The study was conducted in the United Kingdom, and the results are presented in this paper.

Highlights From the Year

One of our most joyful moments was our exhibition themed “Roald Dahl & Stories”, where children and young people proudly displayed their ceramic creations. For many, this was their first experience of seeing their work publicly presented – a powerful moment of pride and achievement.

Our Youth Club also successfully took part in a local participatory budgeting process, securing funding to establish a Youth Café and strengthen youth provision. This was a significant milestone, demonstrating increased confidence, ownership and leadership among local young people.

Summer Club combined art with outdoor activities such as paddleboarding, strawberry picking and go-karting – broadening horizons and creating memorable shared experiences.

Across all programmes, we saw growth in confidence, creative skills, teamwork and self-belief.

The Difference We Make

The Clay Studio provides more than pottery classes – we offer:

- a safe, structured space in an area of high deprivation
- creative opportunities for children and young people who may otherwise be denied access
- inclusive provision for adults and young people with Additional Support Needs
- Accredited progression routes for young people
- A welcoming environment that reduces isolation and builds friendships
- A community garden that extends our impact beyond the studio walls, where knowledge of growing and harvesting is shared – and fresh, nutritious food is enjoyed

Creativity offers young people a constructive outlet, a sense of achievement and a place where their ideas matter. For many families, the studio is not just an activity – it is a consistent, trusted presence in their week.

Financial Review

The accounts for the year ended 31st March 2025 have been prepared on a Receipts & Payments basis.

Income

Total income for the year was £61,488

This included:

- £25,663 in grants and donations
- £35,825 from charitable activities including classes, pottery parties and studio rental

We were grateful to receive £8000 in restricted funding from The Robertson Trust, which was fully utilised during the year in line with funding conditions.

Expenditure

Total expenditure for the year was £59,687

The majority of this (£59,056) directly supported charitable activities. Key costs included:

- Sessional workers: £28,732
- Materials and supplies: £12,841
- Rent, food and related accomodation costs: £8,347
- Utilities: £5,636

Governance costs were modest at £631 and included professional fees and bank charges.

Surplus and Year-End Position

The charity recorded a surplus of £1801, a welcome improvement on the previous year.

At 31st March 2025, we held £4,314 in unestricted funds.

Reserves

The trustees recognise the importance of maintaining sufficient reserves to ensure continuity of provision.

At present, reserves represent less than one month of operating expenditure. While the charity remains stable and solvent, building a stronger reserve base is a priority for the coming year. The trustees intend to formalise a reserves policy and work towards greater financial resilience.

Financial Sustainability and Risk

As a small charity operating from a rented premises, we face ongoing financial pressures, particularly in the areas of wages, rent and utilities.

The primary risk we face is the need to secure continued public funding. While we generate earned income through classes, parties and studio rental, continued grant funding is essential to sustain accessible and inclusive provision throughout and beyond 2026. Trustees remain proactive in seeking diverse income streams.

Volunteers and Donated Services

Trustees serve on a voluntary basis and receive no remuneration.

The charity has a bank of volunteers who have supported various youth work activities.

The accounts include donated bookkeeping services valued at £310.

Independent Examination

The accounts were independently examined by Margaret Littlejohn, Accountant and former member of ICAS. No matters were raised requiring disclosure.

Looking Ahead

As we move into 2025-26, our focus remains on:

- Sustaining inclusive creative provision
 - Strengthening youth leadership opportunities
 - Growing financial resilience
 - continuing to provide a safe, welcoming and inspiring place for our community

The Clay Studio is small but impactful. Every class delivered, every exhibition held, every young person supported contributes to a stronger, more creative community.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner Basis of independent examiner's statement	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention. My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
