SCDN's mission is to be a strong, dynamic organisation which provides a forum for community development practitioners, paid or unpaid, to share experiences, exchange information, discuss and debate practice and policy issues, within a framework which seeks to empower communities.

The key purpose of community development work is to collectively bring about social change and justice, by working with communities to:

- Identify their needs, opportunities, rights and responsibilities Plan, organise and take action
- Evaluate the effectiveness and impact of the action

This will be done by continually challenging oppression and tackle inequalities, staying true to our beliefs that community development should be rooted in values and principles.

Achievement & Performance for 2025

SCDN continues to make good progress as indicated by our increasing membership, contact list and social media presence which extends our reach to members across Scotland.

Steady growth and participation in SCDN activities by CD practitioners helps strengthen our organisation and provides a solid foundation for members to improve their practice through peer support and the exchange of practice.

We have continued to expand our reach with CD practitioners across Scotland, experiencing a steady increase in membership over the reporting period in the following: 532 members, 604 contacts, 479 Facebook followers and 1,694 Twitter.

A key milestone for us this year was to secure a further one years funding from Scottish Government allowing us to continue our work until March 2026

We posted regular items across all social media platforms which proved to be an effective way of sharing information and knowledge amongst our membership. We compiled and circulated our e-bulletins to members on a regular basis. This provided members with information on CD related policy and practice issues.

We worked with the Accelerate Programme over the year to look at funding options, membership systems and carried out a skills audit of our trustees. Our conference took on a more creative approach with delegates producing individual and a collective zine on the topic of democracy. We produced a conference report which was shared with our members and partners.

We held 8 board meetings during the reporting period and a board development day in February 2025 to evaluate and plan our future activities.

We supported and developed opportunities for practitioners to come together and discuss their practice and current policy initiatives via our local networks.

We supported and attended the Dunbartonshire Network to hold 4 meetings, Ayrshire to hold 4 meetings, one of which was a larger event with speakers etc, Fife to hold 3 meetings one of which was a larger event with speakers etc and Glasgow network held 3 meetings.

Programmes and content for all network meetings continue to be co-produced with members locally ensuring debate and discussion is relevant to their practice.

We maintained strong links and relationships with our members and key partners to strengthen community development practice through shared experience and learning.

Report to the trustees of Scottish Community Development Network SCIO, registered charity number SC050043

On the accounts of the charity for the period to 30th September 2025 Set out on Pages 7 to 8

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. If the procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements.
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
