Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education'

What the charity does: TalentPath is set up to identify talents/useful skills in any individual/group, and help the individual/group develop such talents/skills for their individual/group benefits and overall interest of humanity. TalentPath focuses on the advancement of education/relevant skill acquisitions, including software coding/Technology, ICT/Digital skills like Excel, Powerpoint, graphic designs etc, to enhance employability of individuals in the modern work place. We believe education and training are lifelong activities, hence, no age group is excluded from our programmes, though our key target are young person/youths, most especially minorities and vulnerable individual/groups in the society. We organise training events like coding/ICT courses. In the first quarter of 2023, our popular python coding/ICT training course ran for three months, unfortunately, it could not be sustained due to lack of funding. Other activities include career talks/seminars, partnerships with other charities.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The advancement of education, primarily but not exclusively among young Nigerians in software coding and technology in order to enhance their employment prospects and in furtherance of this by. 4.2 Provision of facilities and teaching in software coding and technology. 4.3 Working in partnership with other bodies to achieve the purposes. 4.4 To provide a platform for youths to acquire relevant skills to provide solutions to problems and challenges in their immediate environment and the world at large

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

TalentPath is administered by Board of Trustees and Volunteers, and has no paid employee. The volunteers and trustees conduct administrative work from their homes, and get remunerated as required.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

No new trustees were appointed in the accounting period under review. However, there is plan to review the trusteeship in order to make the running of the Charity more effective. TalentPath has struggled to secure public fund, hence, the decision to expand the trusteeship and getting people with relevant skills and experience on board to help in area of securing public funds for TalentPath in particular and over-all smooth running of the Charity.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

1. The advancement of education primarily but not exclusively among young Nigerians/other minority groups in software coding and technology to enhance their employment prospects and in furtherance of this by:
2. Provision of facilities and teaching in software coding and technology
3. Working in partnership with other bodies to achieve those purposes
4. To provide a platform for youths to acquire relevant skills to provide solutions to problems and challenges in their immediate environment and the world at large.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

TalentPath rolled out a Coding/ICT programme that was scheduled to run for one year in first instance in January 2023, and if successful continued into the subsequent years. The coding/ICT programme was designed to train young children of secondary school age on Python programming language. The programme was also designed to help individuals of all ages who desire ICT skills like Excel, PowerPoint, graphic design etc. This programme ran for only 3 months in 2023, and could not continue due to lack of funding. TalentPath attempts to secure funding for the programme and other activities have not been successful despite best efforts from the charity trustees.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

TalentPath have various programmes on the drawing board during the financial period but have not been able to roll them out due to lack of funding. TalentPath applications for public fund have not been successful so far. Hence, we have scheduled training sessions with experts to training our trustees in the art and skills for seeking and securing public fund in the first quarter of 2025. TalentPath will also make greater effort in seeking out other charities willing to collaborate with her.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

TalentPath will continue to pursue the policy of forming strategic partnerships with relevant organisations and volunteers to aid it to achieve its objectives. The charity will continue to search for donors for its programmes.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
