Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of public participation in sport'

What the charity does: Our income comes from subscriptions from our 240 member clubs and grant funding from Aberdeenshire Council and other sponsors. We distributed over £50k funding to member clubs particularly funding for Positive Participation to encourage more people to be more active including children, handicapped, wome, immigrants as well as funding for normal club activities. We also run a popular Awards Evening which attracts over 300 participants.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 3.1 The advancement of public participation in sport by citizens of all ages living in Aberdeenshire by: 3.1.1 Advising and assisting sports clubs and allied organisations and their members in their activities, and in the establishment and development of new and existing sports clubs and facilities within Aberdeenshire. 3.1.2 Where appropriate, submitting recommendations to Aberdeenshire Council to assist them in discharging their duties as the local authority. 3.1.3 Assisting local sports clubs and related organisations to build their capacity. 3.1.4 Helping individuals to realise their sporting potential. 3.1.5 To follow the aims of the Scottish Clubsport as stated on the mission statement.
