Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: We will continue to provide regular gatherings for worship, prayer, fellowship, Sunday School, and other activities in our church. Looking ahead, we also aim to strengthen our provision of counselling services for Christians and members of the public. Through these activities, we seek to nurture the spiritual growth of our congregation, deepen their sense of belonging, and make our church a spiritual home for believers as well as a place of support within the local community. As an inter-denominational fellowship, we will continue to work cooperatively with other local churches and Christian organisations that share our general aims and evangelical faith. We also intend to engage more actively with partner churches and networks across the United Kingdom to enhance our visibility and extend our outreach to a wider audience, regardless of religious background.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: C – The advancement of religion
The aims: The principal object of the Church is the advancement of the Christian faith and the Doctrinal Basis, as stated in Schedule III. The Church may also carry out other charitable purposes in the United Kingdom and other parts of the world. In furtherance of these objects but not further or otherwise the Church shall have the following functions: 2.1 To preach the gospel of Jesus Christ primarily, but not exclusively, among the Chinese community and other races in Edinburgh and the surrounding area. 2.2 To provide Christ-centred and church-focused programmes of church life and pastoral care. 2.3 To meet together regularly for worship, prayer, fellowship, Sunday school and to meet the spiritual needs of the community. 2.4 To provide counselling service for Christians and members of the public who are interested in receiving Christian counselling. 2.5 To function as an inter-denominational fellowship in which the denominational convictions of individual members will be respected. 2.6 To co-operate appropriately with other local Churches and Societies who share our general aims and evangelical faith.

Objectives and activities

The principal object of the Church is the advancement of the Christian faith in accordance with its Doctrinal Basis. The Church may also carry out other charitable purposes within the United Kingdom and in other parts of the world.

Other activities include:

- Preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ primarily, but not exclusively, among the Chinese community and other ethnic groups in Edinburgh and surrounding areas.
- Providing Christ-centred and church-focused programmes of worship and pastoral care.
- Meeting regularly for worship, prayer, fellowship, Sunday School, and addressing the spiritual needs of the community.
- Offering counselling services for Christians and members of the public who are interested in receiving Christian counselling.
- Functioning as an inter-denominational fellowship in which the denominational convictions of individual members are respected.
- Cooperating appropriately with other local churches and Christian organisations that share our general aims and evangelical faith.

Structure, governance and management

Constitution of The Livingstone Christian Church Edinburgh

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Reverend Ping Fai Leung, having received a calling from God, founded the Church on 17 June 2020. He subsequently invited devoted members to serve as the founding trustees.

Each trustee is appointed to serve a term of two years. Appointments may be renewed at the end of the first term. A trustee may not serve more than two consecutive terms, except in cases where no new candidates are available for election.

Achievements and performance

- Sunday worship services were held regularly.
- In July, the church transitioned into a cell group model. In addition to worship, this approach helps members grow in unity and enables them to support and communicate more closely with one another.
- Reverend Leung took up a new voluntary role as Honorary Chaplain at the University of Edinburgh.
- Church prayer meetings, Bible study and family fellowships were held regularly.
- The church organised regular meetings for Mandarin-speaking students at the University of Edinburgh.
- On 16 June, the church celebrated its 4th anniversary.
- On 17 September, the church hosted a Mid-Autumn Festival celebration, inviting non-believers to attend.
- On 25 December, the church held its Christmas worship service.

-On 29 December, a Christmas party was held, again welcoming non-believers.

2025

-Sunday worship services continue to be held regularly.

-Church prayer meetings, Bible study and fellowships are held consistently.

-On 2 February, the church organised a Chinese New Year celebration, inviting non-believers to attend.

-On 25 March, Reverend Leung established a Mandarin Students' Fellowship at the University of Edinburgh.

-The church welcomed a new family into its membership.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
 The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement
 My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement
 In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
