

Logos Golf Ministries Scotland (LGMS) 2023/24

- Main Activities: [REDACTED] (LGMS Golfing Rep. & Ambassador) participated in seven PGA events on Scotland's Tartan Tour. [REDACTED] also participated in one ProAm charity event, and two outreach events for amateur golfers (see below): -

Scottish PGA Events	Other Events	Amateur Golf Events

Through these events LGMS connected with 84 golfers, professional and amateur. Three out of four of these contacts were with golfers new to the LGMS ministry. These events provide important opportunities: -

- to explain the aims and purposes, and modus operandi of LGMS;
- to consolidate and build on existing relationships; and
- to share life experience, offer encouragement/support, and demonstrate the relevance of the Christian faith by word and deed.

Trust Development: We were pleased to be able to introduce a successful nine-hole outreach event for amateur golfers, well hosted by Mearns Castle GC in Glasgow.

We are again grateful to [REDACTED], under whose direction the LGMS website continued to be maintained and updated. The website serves a number of important functions, including: -

- raising awareness, and promoting understanding of LGMS's main aims and objectives;
- promoting LGMS events and offering encouragement and support to fellow golfers;
- sharing LGMS news and exchanging relevant information and ideas with LGMS sponsors and supporters;
- promoting LGMS fundraising, encouraging donations and supporter sign up; and
- maintaining relationships with LGMS sponsors and supporters.

We are also grateful for, and encouraged by, the positive feedback received from our fellow golfers, especially from Vincent's fellow PGA professionals and from those attending LGMS outreach events for the first time.

Once more the Trustees acknowledge the goodness of God in sustaining the ministry throughout another very challenging golfing year.

Independent Examiner's Report:

to the Trustees of LOGOS Golf Ministries Scotland

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 30 June 2024 which are set out on Pages 1

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10 (1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44 (1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met,

or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
