Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

1. The advancement of education.
2. The promotion of equality and diversity.
3. The advancement of arts, heritage, culture and science.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

1. We have produced three teaching resources, peer reviewed and piloted by teachers in Scotland and also by educational institutions such as Glasgow Life Museums throughout 2021. These are to be launched on our website in 2022.
2. Our volunteer policy is designed to promote equality and diversity in our volunteer recruitment and we have recruited 20 volunteers from various backgrounds, employment status, ages, races and religions which reflects our achievement in enabling an inclusive and supportive volunteer environment.
3. We have led and participated in a number of educational conferences which has promoted equality and diversity in UK classrooms, including our own AIO Volunteer conference which included speakers such as social justice education organisation Eager Network and decolonising geography initiative Geogramblings. We also presented in the University College London and University of Dundee Primary Education conferences for new teachers in 2021.
3. We are currently in discussion with environmental organisation The Future Speaks about project partnership designing teaching resources on Climate Change. We have also been in discussion and planning partnership with Glasgow Life Museums.

APPENDIX 1
