Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The Club is set up to keep the memory of Robert Burns and his works. The main focus of our activity is currently on bringing the works of Burns to school children across the region through competitions and celebration dinners. We also do a lot of work around dementia with workshops and visits set up to help dementia sufferers through Burns work and songs.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To cherish the name of Robert Burns, to foster a love for his writings through education and generally to encourage an interest in Scottish Language and Literature.

Geography
