Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion', 'the advancement of health', 'the saving of lives', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of public participation in sport', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation', 'the promotion of religious or racial harmony', 'the promotion of equality and diversity', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage', 'the advancement of animal welfare', 'any other purpose that may reasonably be regarded as analogous to any of the preceding purposes'

What the charity does: The Paristamen Charity is a small grant-making charity: see our website for full details of grantmaking programmes. All grants are made to other charities, mostly unrestricted 'Responsive' grants to a wide range of small to medium Scottish charities, although we also award a few 'Planned' grants to some larger charities. In most years we also award a larger Blue Sky grant to fund a specific project.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the Charity are: 3.1 the advancement of the Christian faith. and 3.2 to further such other purposes which may be charitable according to the law of Scotland which are not inconsistent with 3.1. PROVIDED that nothing in this Constitution shall authorise the application of property or funds of the Charity for any purpose unless that purpose is exclusively charitable both under Scottish charity law and under tax legislation as applicable in Scotland.
