Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Glass is a multi award-winning company that has been engaging Scottish communities in the arts for 20 years. We aim to create more opportunities for people living in Scotland to access the arts through: producing high quality arts projects and events, creating a platform for the voices and stories of individuals, families and communities to be heard and valued. promoting the view that participating in the arts can have a significant impact on the health and well-being of individuals, families and communities. creating opportunities to access the arts and to participate in creative activity with others, offering pathways for those that would ordinarily not engage with cultural programming. The majority of our projects are delivered with families and young people and designed to provide opportunities for community building through which individuals can express themselves. Projects are delivered in a variety of contexts with the main focus on making performance and theatre.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'
