Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Other optional information

CRED is a virtual organisation with the member of staff working from home using a CRED laptop and internet telephone line and communicating with volunteers using WhatsApp. This 'Virtual Control Centre' ensures that we can operate and support volunteers anywhere in East Dunbartonshire to:

- deliver local resilience within communities and reduce social isolation
 - give local communities the confidence to take control and tackle local issues
 - use funding for community benefit, reducing core running costs
 - avoid duplication of administration resources and effort
 - give smaller groups the opportunity to benefit from insurance and disclosures
 - give volunteers the opportunity to be part of a wider community of volunteers
 - share ideas, training, and experience
 - benefit more local communities with grant funding
- prevent more people requiring statutory services
