(a) The primary aim of the organisation is to promote the Christian Faith and it's values amongst its members and the community at large. (b) All services shall be available to people in the locality and nobody shall be excluded based on their race, faith, gender, or ethnic origin. (c) The promotion of social inclusion for the public benefit among persons who are excluded from society because they are house-bound for any reason, but in particular those who are elderly or in poor health, and assisting them to integrate into society The charity's object ('object') for the public benefit is to promote social inclusion for the public benefit by preventing people from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those people who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society. For the purpose of this clause 'socially excluded' means being excluded from society, or parts of society, as a result of one or more of the following factors: unemployment. financial hardship. youth or old age. ill health (physical or mental). substance abuse or dependency including alcohol and drugs. discrimination on the grounds of sex, race, disability, ethnic origin, religion, belief, creed. poor educational or skills attainment. relationship and family breakdown. poor housing (that is housing that does not meet basic habitable standards). crime (either as a victim of crime or as an offender rehabilitating into society). To further and promote the research into loneliness and social isolation and to publish the useful results of that research. (d) The relief of unemployment for the public benefit in such ways as may be thought fit, including assistance to find employment by the provision of advice and training concerning employment, job search and job club facilities and employability and skills workshops aimed at equipping and preparing individuals to enter or re-enter the labour market, voluntary work or further education. To further and promote the research into unemployment and to publish the useful results of that research. (Continued in Notes Section)
