Structure, Governance and Management

Constitution

Clarkston Chanukah Celebration Association is an Single Tier Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) and is governed by its constitution, which was adopted on 28 June 2021 (amended 4 July 2022).

Appointment, induction and training of trustees

The structure of the organisation consists of the charity's trustees, who are also the organisation's only members and comprise of the organisation's board.

The board must arrange an annual general meeting ('AGM') of the charity's trustees in each calendar year, reporting on the immediately preceding financial year of the organisation.

At each AGM, all the charity trustees appointed during the period since the preceding AGM shall retire from office together with one third on the remaining trustees but may then be re-elected. When there is only the minimum number of trustees (three), no resignations are required.

New trustees are appointed at the discretion of the Board. New trustees take part in an induction programme which aims to familiarise themselves with the charity's values, aims and objectives together with its day-to-day operations, in addition to clarifying their statutory responsibilities as trustees of a charity.

Objectives and Activities

Charitable purposes and objectives

The main objective of the charity is to mark the Jewish festival of Chanukah and the celebration of religious freedom.

Principle Activities, Achievements and Performance

The object is to hold an annual event to mark the Festival of Chanukah, to invite dignitaries from the local community and other faiths to the annual event, to ensure that the local authority put up a Menorah in Clarkston and to advance the message of freedom of religion.

Clarkston Chanukah Celebration AssociationTrustees' Annual Report*For the year to 30 June 2025*Financial Review

Our main source of income is from donations and grants.

Unrestricted funds: During the year, the charity received donations of £750 (2024: £3,519) and grants of £2,000 (2024: nil). Expenses of £2,750 (2024: £3,519) were incurred during the year. The income received matched the expenses for the year and left neither a surplus or a deficit for the year ended 2025 and 2024.

Reserve Policy

The charity's reserve policy is to ensure that the charity has a small amount of funds to cover unexpected costs.

Plans for Future Periods

To continue to hold an annual Chanukah event.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees ofClarkston Chanukah Celebration Association*For the year to 30 June 2025

I have examined the financial statements of Clarkston Chanukah Celebration Association for the year ended 30 June 2025 which are set out on pages five to seven.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10 (1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44 (1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
