The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

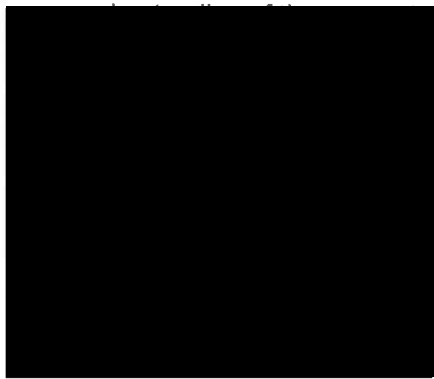

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

Objectives and activities

Peedie Cubby was set up in May 2021 as a local charity.

The aims of Peedie Cubby are to:

- The advancement of citizenship or community development; through the provision of a charity retail outlet for small charities, volunteer groups and community groups as a means to raise their own funds to continue with their activities for all group throughout the Orkney Islands
- The advancement of environmental protection or improvement; through the recycling and reuse of donations of goods for re-sale which in turn will reduce landfill

Everyone involved with the Peedie Cubby including the Board of Directors are all volunteers.

Peedie Cubby

Over the past 12 months we have continued to sell good quality second hand items at affordable prices for the local community.

Donated goods include clothes, shoes, books, kitchen ware, ornaments, jewellery, toiletries, and unwanted gifts etc. This in turn has increased recycling of goods and reduced landfill. No item has been sent to landfill, as goods that reknnot sold are then forwarded to the local Salvation Army, who use then for their own causes.

Local charities and groups book the shop for a week or a fortnight to raise funds for their own groups to raise funds. A diary is set up and local groups approach the Board to book their space. The diary filled up quickly.

Each group has had the use of the shop and contents to sell but are asked to bring donations that they have gathered as well.

Each group have also provided volunteers for each day to work in the shop alongside the permanent volunteers which also includes members of the Board.

Peedie Cubby accepts donations (except electrical goods) from the local community and groups who book the Peedie Cubby.

Over the past 12 months, Peedie Cubby has sold second hand goods to raise funds for local charities and groups to help them to sustain what they do.

Donated goods include clothes, shoes, books, kitchen ware, ornaments, jewellery, toiletries, and unwanted gifts etc. This in turn has increased recycling of goods and reduced landfill. No item has been sent to landfill, as goods that not sold are then forwarded to the local Salvation Army, who use the for their own causes.

Structure, governance and management

Peedie Cubby is an voluntary association and is governed by having a constitution in place. The constitution will be reviewed annually at a Board Meeting

Trustee recruitment and appointment

All of the trustees for the past 12 month have been volunteers who believed in the charity and the impact it would have for the local community.

Trustees will be appointed at the AGM, All trustees are volunteers and must be over 16 years of age.

A variety of different skills is utilised to ensure the charity has a well-trained diverse group pulling ideas together

There will be a maximum of 8 trustees and a minimum 3 trustees.

No trustee receives any remuneration with the exception of repayments of running costs, i.e repayment for paying for Liability Insurance or money for the Annual Membership of Kirkwall Bid

Achievements and performance

Over the past 12-months, Peedie Cubby has sold second hand goods to raise funds for local charities and groups to help them to sustain what they do.

Financial review

Statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Peedie Cubby required to have enough reserves in place to continue to pay liability insurance, rent and costs of running the charity shop.

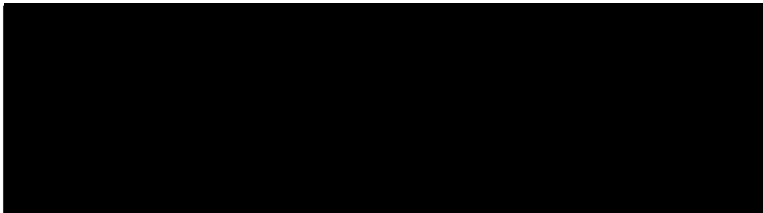

Chairpersons Word

We as a group of Volunteers, both on the Board and in the shop have been overwhelmed by the donations, and time given to The Peedie Cubby over the past 3 years. We are extremely proud to have been able to support groups and charities, who do so much for our local community.

Unfortunately due to health concerns of some of the Board Members and shortage of regular volunteers, a meeting was held in February and the decision was made by the majority of the Board to wind things up and close the Peedie Cubby.

Thank you for your support and contributions over the past three years, then Board and myself have enjoyed working and assisting the local community thoroughly.
