Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of public participation in sport'

What the charity does: Central Scotland Wing Air Cadets is a charity helping young people between the ages of 12-20 develop skills, confidence and opportunities through aviation themed activities and personal development programmes. We hold weekly local squadron activities where Cadets can participate in Drill training, First Aid, Aviation studies and sports. We offer unique opportunities such as Flying and Gliding in powered aircraft and flight simulators. There is also opportunity to complete a Duke of Edinburgh programme, STEM activities as well as competitions throughout the UK.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The purpose of the Squadron Association ('the Association') is to fully support the squadron commander to further the objects of the Air Training Corps ('the ATC') as contained in the Schedule to the Royal Warrant and as amended from time to time but in particular to support activities which foster the spirit of adventure amongst the squadron's cadets and develop their qualities of leadership and good citizenship.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We continue to deliver a huge amount of activity through our multi-activity weekend camp model and delivered road marching for the first time.

The Wing continues to enjoy success at sports at the regional competitions and leading on the Scotland and Northern Ireland Region multi-activity camps.

We have had individual cadet successes gaining many gold level awards in first aid, leadership and cyber and achieving gliding scholarships and flying scholarships; and individual volunteer successes with the top officer in the Scotland & Northern Ireland region once again coming from Central Scotland Wing.

As we look forward, we will continue to strive to offer the best opportunities for our cadets across all activities in the progressive training syllabus, with a specific focus in increasing participation in adventure training activities such as climbing, hill walking, paddle sports and mountain biking.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity does not hold reserves as we operate for the sole benefit of the Cadets and staff.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts v2

Report to the trustees/members of Registered charity number
On the accounts of the charity for the period

Charity name Central Scotland Wing Air Training Corps
Registered charity number SC051190
Period start date				Period end date
Day 01	Month 04	Year 2024	to	Day 31	Month 03	Year 2025
Set out on pages					(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention ~~[other than that disclosed on the attached page*]~~

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
