Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

"the advancement of education", "the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science"

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

We provide free and accessible workshops in a wide range of arts & crafts such as glassblowing and mural painting. We work with organisations such as the Burrell Collection and GOMA to provide outreach work to the public. We work with educational institutions such as Glasgow University to contribute to research in culture and science.

APPENDIX 1

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We continue to work with local and international partners. Key partners are: Venice Glass Week; The Annexe, Partick, Scotland; the ARC, University of Glasgow; GOMA, Scotland; Artists Network Alpujarras, Spain; Glass Art Society; The Healing Arts Festival

In 2023-24 we hired a marketing officer, an administrator; finance officer and studio assistant to contribute to specific projects in the summer months.

We successfully received funding from Roberson Trust; Trades House of Glasgow and Glasgow City Council.

We are continuing to build a dedicated workspace on the west coast of Scotland, but with limited funding, this is a slow process.

We are developing the Healy Artist Collective- a group of artists that we can call upon for large-scale projects. An example of a large-scale community project that we continue to work on - 'Dancing Wave- Longest Mural in Glasgow'. This mural has elements that can be animated with augmented Reality (AR) using an app and QR code.

This blend of traditional painting skills with cutting-edge technology is an exciting avenue to keep traditional skills relevant in contemporary society.

We are continuing to fundraise with an annual raffle and fundraising events. We are establishing links with local area partnerships. We presented some of the outcomes of the Dancing wave Mural at GOMA in January 2024 and April 2024.

It is important to us that we are open to a diverse group of participants and to offer opportunities to all.

We continue to update our website and social media and send out a Mail Chimp newsletter.
