Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of public participation in sport', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: It was set up to work with Fife Council to develop and operate an athletics track for the benefit of the local community of Kirkcaldy. As of today's date, the Council has not confirmed support for the project. The plan of the charity was to seek funding to renew the ash track on the site of Balwearie High School and to operate the facility for the benefit of the community.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: 4.1 the advancement of citizenship or community development. 4.2 the advancement of public participation in sport. and 4.3 the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended. In furtherance of these purposes the organisation will: Provide and operate a state-of-the-art track and field facility in Kirkcaldy which will allow user access year-round and help us develop the physical competence and confidence of athletes, pupils and local residents of the Fife area. Help Fife AC, Balwearie High School and other local organisations in the Fife area to improve the physical health and wellbeing of local residents through sporting participation, health and fitness. Complement existing facilities in the campus, local and Fife areas to create a vibrant Community

Sports hub for events, coaching and training. and Deliver and operate a shared, modern and accessible community facility for use by other clubs and community bodies in the Fife area.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
