REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DEC 2024

The Board of Trustees presents its annual report and financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2024. The financial statements have been prepared on a receipts and payments basis and comply with the Charities Account (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities published in 2005.

Scottish Football for Rwanda is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO), registered in Scotland by the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR) under number SCO51705.

Scottish Football for Rwanda is mainly a children's charity, dedicated to:

- Furthering public participation in sport, namely football; and
- The relief of those in need, by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

We help children in Rwanda by encouraging and facilitating football through our Scottish volunteers and our football network in Rwanda, and also as a grant-making charity.

Background

Scottish Football for Rwanda was founded as a registered charity (SCIO) to make an even greater impact than the good work that previous, more informal trips to Rwanda had achieved.

Organisational Structure

The structure of the organisation consists of the charity's Trustees, who are also the organisation's members and Board members.

The Board manages the operational running of the organisation, which is mainly led by Chief Executive Officer [REDACTED] and Chairman [REDACTED].

The Board meets at least 4 times a year and receives regular updates from the Chief Executive Officer.

Objectives and activities

The organisation's purposes:

- Furthering public participation in sport, namely football; and
- The relief of those in need, by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

The main charitable activity of the organisation is to organise regular trips to Rwanda, during which our volunteers (Scottish youth football players and coaches) plan and deliver football sessions for children of all age, ability, gender and background.

Fundraising is mainly done by our volunteers, who not only donate a minimum amount to enable each trip to cover their costs, but also additional donations that are then distributed between the organisations we support in Rwanda – schools, ex-street children centers, community groups and other support organisations.

Financial Review

Most of the revenue in the financial year was related to the trip in November 2024, whilst the costs related to two trips; February and November 2024.

Total income for the year was £65,253 (2023: £15,213), including £2,000 of restricted funds (2023: £1,100). Payments relating directly to charitable activities for the year was £29,262 (2023: £8,187). Grants and donations for the year was £17,030 (2023: £6,000).

At 31st December 2024, the organisation had total net assets of £28,924 (2023: £10,714), of which £26,924 is unrestricted funds (2023: £10,714).

This balance carried forward provides the organisation with security to continue as a going concern.

Risks and Uncertainty

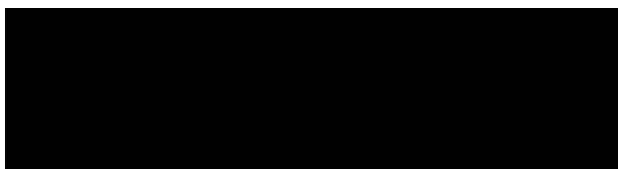

The Board regularly review the risks to which the charity is exposed and are satisfied that the appropriate processes are in place to mitigate these risks.

Trustee Appointments

Scottish Football for Rwanda has a small Board that offers a wide range of skills and experiences to the charity. Trustees with the appropriate experience are invited to join the Board and follow the guidance of Charity Trustees provided by OSCR, which sets out the duties and responsibilities of charity trustees in Scotland.

At the time of this report the Trustees are:

Scottish Football for Rwanda is governed in accordance with its constitution which is carefully drafted to reflect the aims of the charity and its activities.

Future plans of the charity

The current aim is to deliver three trips per year to Rwanda, to develop relationships with football clubs in Scotland and Rwanda, and to make significant funding donations.

Volunteers

The Board of Trustees are all volunteers and receive no expenses, other than reimbursement of approved administration costs paid on behalf of the charity.

Grants

During the year, the charity made numerous grants and donations, including a further £11,200 to Good News International, to continue the building development of the football pitch in the village of Bisesero. Total donations to this project now stands at £17,200. The charity also donated £3,562 as a contribution towards coaching qualifications at Dream Team.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper view to be reached.
