Structure, governance and management

Governing Document

YAP is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (a SCIO). It was registered on 17th June 2022. The official governing document we operate under is our constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The management committee, who meet 4-6 times a year, is the charity's trustees. The committee is also open to interested members of the community and currently Laura Crombie – Service Manager for Clued-up Project (third sector) advises the trustees. Laura's work background brings invaluable experience to the group. The trustees bring a variety of skills and experience.

Currently, there are five trustees.

Trustees are elected at the annual general meeting which was held in December 2024. There must be a minimum of three and a maximum of eleven trustees.

Objectives and activities

The charity is constituted as a SCIO and is governed by a Constitution. The charity trustees meet regularly and are responsible for the strategic direction and policy of the charity.

Youth Auchmuty Project (YAP) was established under Clued-up in 2019 and became an independent Charity and SCIO in June 2022.

The initial, National Lottery, Community Fund (Young Start) funding was due to end in February but was extended to the beginning of April 2025. This enabled YAP to deliver their core services with a Development Worker and two Youth Workers. YAP was successful in obtaining further funding for two years from the Young Start to continue this project. In July 2023 YAP was successful in securing further funding from The Robertson Trust for three years. This allowed the provision of additional hours for the Youth Workers and in addition to develop and run the P7 transition programme.

Patterson Boyd & Co, Accountants continue to complete our payroll.

The principle objectives of YAP are:

- The advancement of citizenship or community development through the provision, development and organisation of a Youth Café in the Auchmuty area of Glenrothes and thus support children and young people by providing opportunities to develop their spiritual, mental and physical capacities and enable them to improve their conditions of life;
- To provide recreational facilities and/or organise recreational activities within the operating area, with such facilities/activities being made available to members of the public at large with the object of improving their conditions of life and providing opportunity;
- To advance physical and mental health and wellbeing in the Glenrothes area by the promotion, alone or in conjunction with others, of the benefits of physical activity and provision of assistance in relation to healthy lifestyle matters for young people; and
- The advancement of education by providing training, enhancing skills and confidence and thus increasing life opportunities and employability for young people.

In doing so YAP will seek:

- To support, where appropriate, disadvantaged or underprivileged children, young people or adults to participate in activities and community learning opportunities which foster and develop a community spirit and improve their life chances;
- To do all such other things which further the objectives of the organisation and may be deemed to be charitable.

Annual Summary

Throughout the year, Youth Auchmuty Project (YAP) has continued to provide a safe, welcoming, and youth-led space for young people in Glenrothes. Our work focuses on improving opportunities for young people by enhancing youth provision, building positive relationships within the community, and supporting individual growth and development.

At the heart of our approach is our weekly Youth Café provision, which takes place in Auchmuty Learning Centre and offers age-specific sessions for both younger participants (P7–S1) and older participants (S2–21). These sessions provide a relaxed and supportive environment where trusting relationships are built, and young people are encouraged to have their voices heard. Alongside the cafés, our Development Steering Group meets weekly, giving young people direct involvement in shaping YAP's work and taking on leadership responsibilities.

This year, a significant amount of time has also been dedicated to developing YAP's Strategy. The Steering Group have been fully involved in this process, helping to shape a new vision and mission that reflects what YAP means to them. Together, they identified the reasons they continue to engage, volunteer, and give their time to support the charity. They also developed a set of values that capture YAP's passion and ethos while remaining youth-friendly and fun, ensuring the strategy feels authentic and rooted in the voices of young people.

Community engagement remains central to what we do. Young people are involved at every stage of planning and delivering events, which not only bring the community together but also help challenge negative perceptions of young people in the local area.

Another key focus this year has been youth participation and personal development. A smaller group of young people have taken on leadership roles within YAP, supported through training, mentoring, and opportunities to gain qualifications. This experience helps them build self-esteem, leadership, and problem-solving skills while preparing them for future education, employment, and life opportunities.

Our relationship-based approach ensures that young people are supported as individuals. Many face challenges linked to socio-economic disadvantage, caring responsibilities, low household income, or discrimination related to being LGBTQ+. We provide a nurturing space where they feel valued and accepted, while also signposting to additional support when needed to ensure their wider wellbeing.

YAP has also strengthened partnerships this year, including delivering transition support with Warout Primary School, continuing our involvement in the Auchmuty Learning Centre's community garden, and delivering a variety of projects such as holiday groupwork, Care Boxes for the homeless, Pride Prom, Christmas Dinner, Pasta Night learners at the Learning Centre, focus groups, and a residential with the Steering Group.

Overall, 2024–25 has been a year of growth, opportunity, and community connection. YAP remains committed to supporting young people in Glenrothes to reach their potential, to have their voices heard, and to play an active role in shaping both YAP and their wider community.

Developments, Activities and Achievements

2024–25 has been a year of growth, development, and opportunity for YAP. With funding secured from The National Lottery Community Fund (Young Start) and The Robertson Trust, we have been able to further embed ourselves within the community, expand our work with young people, and strengthen our partnerships with schools, local services, and third sector organisations.

Youth Provision

Youth Café: Our weekly Youth Café continues to thrive, welcoming between 20–25 young people each week with an average of 45 attending monthly. The younger Youth Café (P7–S1) also provides a vital stepping stone, allowing children to build confidence before joining the Steering Group. The Steering Group play a central role in running the cafés, contributing around five hours of volunteering each week. The younger Youth Café has provided older volunteers with opportunities to engage with young people, lead sessions, build relationships and take on a mentoring/peer support role answering questions relating to school and the pressures of being a teenager.

There are activities planned each week as well as opportunities to arrange themed nights like Halloween and Christmas.

Steering Group: Six to seven young people regularly attend the Steering Group, with three new members joining this year. They have developed skills in leadership, planning, and teamwork while organising events, groupwork, and activities. Several members have grown in confidence, with one achieving a Gold Youth Achievement Award (SQA Level 6) by leading his own eight-week fitness programme.

There has been a focus on development and growth both within themselves and the organisation. The Steering Group have played a pivotal role in the creating our new Vision, Mission and Values as well as identifying future goals and aspirations.

The Steering Group support YAP by attending promotional events, planning community events, volunteering at the younger youth café, P7 work and trips as well as being a voice at focus groups and research taking place throughout the area.

Fitness Group: working in partnership with Youth1st, attended by six young people, twice a week for eight weeks. Sessions were planned and adapted by the young person leading the group, who completed their Gold Youth Achievement Award.

Strategy, Vision and Values

This year, the Steering Group and staff dedicated time to developing YAP's Strategy, Vision, and Values. Through workshops and development days, the group identified what YAP means to them, why they volunteer, and what they aspire for the project. The result is a set of youth-led values rooted in Belonging, Respect, Growth, and Fun, which will be formally launched at the AGM.

Community Engagement and Partnerships

YAP has continued to build strong relationships with Warout Primary School, Auchmuty High School, YMCA, Muirhead Project, Fife Gingerbread, and the Community Learning & Development Team.

- Community Events: We hosted a Pride Prom for 33 young people, Pasta Night for learners using the Learning Centre, Christmas Dinner with 10 young people, and raised money to create Care Boxes for those experiencing homelessness in Glenrothes by running 5km.

- Residential: Seven Steering Group members planned with five taking part in a three-night residential to Aviemore, incorporating team-building activities such as a Treetop Challenge and water sports.

- Awards & Recognition: Our second AGM in December 2024 incorporated our Awards Evening, celebrating the journeys and achievements of every young person. One Steering Group member was also named Young Volunteer of the Year 2025 by Fife Voluntary Action.

Transition and Groupwork

- P7 Transition Programme: delivered a year-long programme with Warout Primary, supported by staffing funded by The Robertson Trust. All 27 pupils gained a Dynamic Youth Award, and many have since gone on to attend the Youth Café. Two volunteers from Clued-up supported the project throughout the year and the young people of YAP volunteered when possible. YAP went into the school on a weekly basis developing relationships, building confidence and answering questions relating to high school. The whole class visited the high school on several occasions throughout the year. The class spent five weeks at Auchmuty Learning Centre at their community garden, where they grew plants, made bird feeders and played outdoor games. YAP was able to support several trips from visiting the new town park and tenpin bowling.

- Holiday Groupwork: The Steering Group designed and delivered summer and October programmes within set budgets, managing logistics, contacting providers, and running activities. From days out in Edinburgh to canoeing in Lochore Meadows each session develops many life skills and provides lifelong memories and experiences they may not have had.

- Moving-Up: Following on from the success of the transition work and feedback from the cluster primary schools, YAP worked in partnership with CLD at Fife Council running a six week programme from May to June which was then supported throughout the summer. Ten Primary 7's took part.

Learning, Volunteering and Leadership

- Young people accessed new opportunities through the Auchmuty Learning Centre, including money management course and an adult learning taster session.
- Volunteers have logged 1001 hours since June 2024 – most contributed by Steering Group members. Hours are now being tracked towards Saltire Awards to recognise their contribution. With two young people now completed their 200 hours volunteering Saltire Award. Two over 150 hours and three working towards 100 hours.
- Staff and young people also took part in a Quality Improvement Project and Leadership Programme, building skills, knowledge, and tools that will shape YAP's future development. This will be carried forward into next year.
- A shared training day was organised with Youth Scotland. Young people from four agencies attending as a bigger group to begin their Get Ready for Youth Work Training with 16 attending.
- A development pathway is being created to visually demonstrate the journey the young people go on within YAP and the different developmental stages from the P7 transition programme, Steering Group and onto young leaders. Each stage progressing their skills, confidence and ownership of YAP.

Financial review

Receipts for the year totalled £37,250 and payments totalled £70,173, which resulted in a deficit for the year of £32,923. Year-end reserves were £28,063.

The deemed start and end dates of funding are not necessarily concurrent with YAP's financial year. Whilst we are showing a deficit, this is due to the timing of receiving grants and some years will be presented as a surplus.

Reserves policy

The trustee's policy is to retain a minimum of 3 months' worth of running costs to meet commitments and to cover any unexpected expenditure. As it stands, YAP has enough funds to cover the running costs as their core budget falls under the restricted grant from the National Lottery Community Young Start. Unrestricted reserves as at year end stood at £11,487 and restricted reserves £16,576. YAP will continue to look to build its unrestricted reserves.

Future Plans

Looking ahead, YAP will continue to strengthen opportunities for young people through leadership, participation, and community connection. Our key priorities include:

- Expanding leadership pathways through tailored training and development opportunities.
- Launching a younger Steering Group, providing consistent support to develop skills and confidence among P7–S1 participants.
- Finalising, launching and embedding our Strategy, ensuring it reflects the voices and ambitions of young people.
- Strengthening partnerships with schools, local agencies, and third sector organisations to widen networks and ensure consistent youth work provision across Glenrothes.
- Building connections between younger members and the Steering Group, creating opportunities for mentoring and shared development.
- Organising a new residential, shaped by feedback from this year, with a focus on personal growth and team development.
- Supporting accreditation opportunities, helping young people achieve Dynamic Youth Awards and Youth Achievement Awards.
