Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of religion', 'the advancement of health', 'the saving of lives', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: We continue to be regularly involved in sending boxes to the many underprivileged and struggling families in Moldova, so the poor are never forgotten. Countless van-fulls have made their way, over the past few years, laden with clothing, footwear and a variety of other necessities for those who desperately need it, especially young children, families and the elderly. We also send Bibles and Christian literature/calendars, via contacts/couriers in London, to Moldova/Ukraine.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: (a) the prevention or relief of poverty, (c) the advancement of religion, (d) the advancement of health, (e) the saving of lives, (n) the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage,

Objectives and Activities

The purposes of the charity are:

The organization's purposes are the prevention or relief of poverty, the advancement of religion, the advancement of health, the saving of lives and the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship and other disadvantages.

Specifically, it is to advance the evangelical Christian faith and promote the good news of Jesus Christ' in Eastern Europe amongst those who are suffering great loss and devastation – through no fault of their own – because of poverty, deprivation, and economic disadvantages.

Bibles, gospel literature, evangelical booklets and calendars are sent out at regular intervals throughout the years to churches, from where they are freely distributed by volunteers to those who need or request them. Humanitarian aid is provided by sending boxes, via carriers, to the many underprivileged and struggling families in Moldova. These boxes are laden with clothing, footwear and a variety of other necessities for those who desperately need it, especially young children, families and the elderly. Provision is also made for the influx of Ukrainian refugees sheltering in their country.

Review of our Achievement and Performance

In continuing to send Bibles to Eastern Europe, bulletins of Moldova Mission for 2024 highlight how God's Word is the greatest book that has ever been written. It is indisputably the Book of books. Every year more copies of the Bible are printed and sold, on the markets of time, than any other single book. Being the true and living Word of the living God, it is powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword. Yes, it has a supernatural power, that no other book has, to change lives and transforms nations, 'it is the power of God unto salvation to every-one that believeth.' The word of this infallible and inerrant Book is also, just like the Author, unchanging and timeless, 'Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away...For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven.' In 2 Timothy 3 verse 15 we read how the mighty power of the Holy Scriptures, 'is able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.'

This Book is one they are currently craving in Ukraine! As the war sadly continues unabated in Eastern Europe so does the cry for Bibles. Christian charities, missionary organisations and church leaders report that, among the Ukrainian people living in the grip of fear, there is an ever-increasing hunger for God's Word. A spokesman for one Bible Society in 2024 said, 'The demand shows an extraordinary hunger for God's word. Of course, the humanitarian need is great, and it will become greater. But there is a unique opportunity for Christians around the world to provide Bibles, in any way possible, to a nation crying out for them!' This indeed is joyful news!

Another Bible supplier in Europe said: 'The demand for Bibles in Ukraine is exploding, in fact it is outstripping supply... Our stock of Bibles is quickly diminishing. We have far more requests for Scriptures than we are even able to provide.' He also went to say: 'It seems to us that the nation has turned to Psalm 31 for security and refuge: 'In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness. Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for a house of defence to save me. For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me...'

Moldova Mission is thankful to God for the large consignment of Bibles and Christian literature it provided to churches in Ukraine, during 2024, which were distributed by local church pastors and volunteers. In the shipment were 14,000 Russian & Ukrainian Bibles, 5,000 booklets The Gospel According to John and 4,000 copies of Ultimate Questions by John Blanchard. They were evenly distributed, from a warehouse in Kiev, to churches in the following cities... Kharkiv, the second biggest city in Ukraine – where 2 churches received 5,066 Bibles and Odessa, where 2 churches also received 5,066. One church in Mykolaiv (or Nikolaev), called 'the city of ships' with a population of 500,000 inhabitants, received 2,533 Bibles, while another church in the small city of Uman, in the province of Cherkasy Oblast, central Ukraine, received 1,335 Bibles.

The churches which received Bibles in these various cities have been supported by friends in Moldova since the war began on 24 February 2022. This brutal full-scale invasion of Ukraine by Russia and Putin's army, with its series bombings of cities, became the largest attack on a European country since World War II. Our contacts in the Ukraine have said they would, in due course, send pictures and short reports about the distribution of these Bibles. It is understood they will be supplying smaller churches, in rural areas, with whatever quantity they need.

Moldova Mission would like to, once again, take this opportunity to thank, most sincerely, every donor (known and unknown) who kindly contributed towards their mission labours for the 12-months period ending December 2024, and the incredibly generous total sum of £20,284 which was gifted: 'The Lord loves a cheerful giver.'

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 5 to 7.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended)

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
