Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The Society is set up to promote public interest in, and engagement with, current research on the history of the West Highlands and Islands, extending to other parts of the Scottish Gàidhealtachd. It does this principally by means of publication of the thrice-yearly West Highlands Notes and Queries (60 pages per issue) and the holding of monthly online lectures. occasionally other events are held, such as conferences, and these may lead to stand-alone publications. Thus it is currently hoped to publish the proceedings of a conference on the Highlands and Islands in the Sixteenth Century, held in Inverness in July 2024.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The object of the Trust is the encouragement and advancement of research on the history of the Western Highlands and Islands of Scotland, to make this research available to the public, and to undertake all activities conducive thereto, and in furtherance thereof but not otherwise the Trust shall undertake: 5.1 To establish as a going concern the publication known as 'West Highland Notes and Queries', together with all the assets, debts and liabilities of such publication. 5.2 To undertake the preparation, production and publication of books, periodicals, pamphlets and other publications and of films, including without prejudice to the said generality, the preparation and publication of the said 'West Highland Notes and Queries' (which however may be re-named by the Trustees at any time), which are in furtherance of the objects of the Trust. 5.3 To provide for the delivery and holding of lectures, meetings, conferences, study facilities and similar activities calculated directly or indirectly to advance the objects of the Trust. 5.4 To enter into agreements and arrangements necessary or desirable in furtherance of the objects of the Trust.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Edinburgh Law Review Trust

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply.

It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination of the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2025, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met.

There is nothing to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
