Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Maslow's is set up to support people in our community by meeting basic needs, creating space for connection, and offering meaningful volunteering opportunities. Through our Community Shop, we provide free clothing and household goods to those in need, with an outreach service for individuals in Glasgow who cannot travel. Our Community Hub operates five days a week as a welcoming space where people in Govan can come together to learn, connect, and build confidence. We also work closely with local groups to improve community spaces and integration. Maslow's is powered by a strong volunteer team—30 to 40 volunteers supported by two managers and a part-time coordinator—who help us deliver our services throughout the year.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: 4.Purposes The organisation's purpose is: 4.1 to contribute to meet the physiological needs of refugees, asylum seekers and those experiencing hardship in the greater Glasgow community, create safe spaces and support networks that promote social integration, mental health, and well-being, facilitate active participation in community life and to provide volunteering opportunities working towards a more inclusive and compassionate community

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During this financial year, Maslow's Shop relocated to a new, more visible venue with more floor space. Due to the new location, we get more passing footfall, which has increased our visibility in the community. Therefore, we were able to provide relief and support to greater numbers of people through our shop, outreach service, and community hub. We provided free clothing and household items to over 7,000 individuals during the reporting period. This was a 40% increase on last year's numbers.

Outreach Service: For those who cannot come to the Shop due to travel constraints, we continued to offer essential clothing and hygiene products to asylum seekers in state-provided accommodation.

Online Shop: Since moving to the new shop with better facilities, Maslow's has grown its online shop. This included a volunteer taking the lead on organising, stocking, and running the online operations. This has offered both the opportunity for this volunteer to grow their skillset and for Maslow's to increase revenue. To date, feedback has been very positive from shoppers at our online store.

Hub Offerings: To help our service users improve their

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees' policy is to retain two and a half months' worth of normal running costs in order to meet commitments and to cover any unexpected expenditure. Two and a half months' expenditure stands at £21,000 (out with grants which are guaranteed for the next financial year), and reserves at the end of the year were at £19,204. During the financial year, we were successful in securing a number of large grants, which reduced the pressure on our unrestricted funds. There was an

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
