Charity Trustees

It should be noted that [REDACTED] resigned from the Board of Trustees prior to the Annual General Meeting being held on Tuesday 4th Feb 2025. In the absence of a Chair, [REDACTED] is currently Acting Chairperson.

Objectives and activities

The purposes of Restore Stirling are:

- (a) The prevention or relief of poverty.
- (b) The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

In furtherance of these objectives the organization will undertake the following activities:

- (i) House vulnerable adults at risk of or currently experiencing homelessness in supported accommodation
- (ii) Provide friendship, mentoring, life skills support, and access to training and work experience to all our residents thus enabling them to gain the skills they need to work in employment and to live independently in future
- (iii) Offer Christian pastoral care where requested and where appropriate
- (iv) Assist the residents with completion of government financial support applications, with accessing medical care, and with general life skills

Structure, governance, and management

Type of governing document:

Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO)

Trustee recruitment and appointment

At the end of year 2024, we had 7 trustees (although now 5)

Our current board of Trustees have diverse working experiences including a Retired Business & Social Care Manager, Business Owner/Managing Director, HGV Driver, Construction Manager, each bringing mixed life experiences and skills.

Achievements and Performance

Due to the latest government requirements concerning supported housing, this has continued to put a significant delay to our partner, Green Pastures' further investments into supported housing projects in Scotland.

And since we are inextricably linked with Green Pastures as our key source of funding for housing, it has put us in an indefinite holding pattern.

Our last AGM was via zoom on 22nd Nov 2023. We discussed our current holding pattern and decided to hold tight and await news from Green Pastures

A discussion with Green Pastures Scotland representative, [REDACTED], was had by [REDACTED] in August 2024. At that time, the situation had not changed with and Green Pastures was still in their application process to become registered as a supported housing organisation in Scotland.

A further email discussion was had with [REDACTED] of Green Pastures on 21st Jan 2025, and no further news was provided except that Green Pastures are still committed to Scotland although only one project is actively running currently here, which is a project housing eight Ukrainian refugee families. The Green Pastures homeless housing project which was in Fife is on closing down mode.

Financial review

We began the year with a balance of £666.02, which is gradually being depleted by bank charges.

We paid our Independent Examiner, KABS, the sum of £60 for preparation of our 2023 year end accounts.

No other expenditure was made other than bank charges of £137.40

We have had no other income this year since we have carried out no activities, as yet.

Closing bank balance is £528.62

Statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees will, when operating, aim to maintain free reserves in our Reserves Fund at a level which equates to approximately three months of unrestricted expenditure.

Summary

Once again, no progress was made in 2024 at all, therefore, taking this into account plus the loss of our Chair and another trustee, it has been unanimously agreed at the AGM on 4th Feb 2025, that Restore Stirling will seek to close down the charity with immediate effect due to the lack of progress in our partnership with Green Pastures, and thus our inability to purchase a first house of the homeless. It is felt that no progress can be made in it's current form.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
