Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the CIO are (1) The advancement of education of beneficiaries including but not limited to providing access to training, education or work experience to support beneficiaries in developing their knowledge and skills (including encouraging high standards of distilling practice), in particular for those who would not otherwise have access to such opportunities. (2) The relief of poverty (in particular amongst those who have worked in the distilling and associated trades) and the relief of sickness. (3) To support young people, especially from disadvantaged backgrounds and deprived areas, by all charitable means, to reach their full potential, and develop their capabilities, competences, skills and understanding so that they can make a positive contribution to their community and the wider world. (4) To promote any charitable purpose for the benefit of the public generally including making grants for the general purposes of such charities as the trustees may from time to time decide.
