TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2025

OBJECTIVE AND ACTIVITIES

1. Leven Baptist Church SCIO has been recognised as a charity for the purposes of Section 505 Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 and has been entered on the Index of Scottish Charities.
2. The principal aim of the Church, which is affiliated to the Baptist Union of Scotland, is to proclaim the Christian faith in work and in action. The outworking of that aim is achieved through the activities undertaken at our various venues within Levenmouth where we seek to serve the community around us in practical ways. These activities included community cafes, wellbeing meetings, parent and toddlers' groups, and Messy Church.

GOVERNANCE

1. The Church is congregational in its form of church governance, as set out in its Constitution. Day to day running of the Church across its different premises is overseen by the Pastors in association with the Secretary and Treasurer, who are accountable to the Trustees and Deacons' Court.
2. The Church Constitution provides for between 6 and 15 Trustees. Were there a requirement for new Trustees these would be identified and appointed by church members, as provided for in the Constitution.
3. Deacons and Trustees who served during the year, as well as those who were employed on the Ministry Team, are set out below.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

At this time last year there was confidence that the Church had turned a corner away from what had been a period of consistent deficits which were significantly depleting our reserves. The sight of an accounting deficit this year might suggest that the optimism was misplaced. However, just as last year's surplus disguised an operating deficit due to the large legacy we received, so this year's accounting deficit disguises an operating surplus.

Thanks to the significant boost to our reserves from the legacy we have been able to spend money this year on capital projects. Those have included undertaking repairs and additional maintenance to our properties including the roof at Methil and the boundary wall at Church Road. Additionally, we purchased a large TV to replace the projector in the church. We also increased our giving to others by tithing from the legacy we received. Taken together, those account for around £28,000. Without those exceptional items we would have an operating surplus. All of this suggests that the church is in a stable situation in terms of operations with a much-improved financial reserve.

That said, it must be noted that voluntary giving to the Church, which is a major source of income, continues to decline. This decline has been offset by careful management of running costs, but those are now probably at the lowest we can reasonably expect. We are, therefore, vulnerable to any continued decline in regular giving.

The average UK inflation rate for 2025 is anticipated to be around 3.5% and is expected to fall to an average of 2.5% for 2026. Allowing that we are at the best cost management we can achieve, then to deliver a similar operating performance next year we should be looking to increase income by around 2.5%.

Of course, the future is unknown and uncertain where costs and income are concerned, but we are blessed with a much-improved reserves position, and we trust God for his continued provision for us.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS' REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF LEVEN BAPTIST CHURCH SCIO

I report on the Accounts of the Church and Centre for the year ended 30 September 2025, which are set out on pages 4-5.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
