Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Our primary focus is to raise funds and awareness for the development of the sea pool. Through Facebook and our website, we aim to provide detailed information about the sea pool project, our fundraising efforts, and the latest progress on the construction. We take pride in being a part of the Arbroath community and are committed to creating a safe and enjoyable sea pool that everyone can enjoy.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: To create a sea pool which is a free to use community resource, accessible to all who wish to use it at their own discretion and understanding of their own swimming abilities, irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity or paternity, parental and / or care giving, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation or financial means.

Nature and purpose of funds

1. The first paragraph discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second paragraph outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data, including surveys, interviews, and focus groups. It highlights the challenges of ensuring the reliability and validity of the information gathered.

3. The third paragraph describes the process of identifying key stakeholders and their interests. It notes that understanding the perspectives of different groups is essential for developing effective strategies and policies.

4. The fourth paragraph details the steps involved in setting clear goals and objectives. It stresses the importance of making these goals measurable and achievable, and of regularly monitoring progress.

5. The fifth paragraph discusses the role of communication in the implementation of a project. It suggests that clear and consistent communication is vital for keeping everyone informed and motivated.

6. The sixth paragraph addresses the issue of resource allocation. It advises that resources should be distributed based on priority and that regular reviews should be conducted to ensure efficient use.

7. The seventh paragraph focuses on risk management. It identifies potential risks and provides strategies for mitigating them, such as contingency planning and regular risk assessments.

8. The eighth paragraph concludes by summarizing the key findings and recommendations. It reiterates the importance of ongoing evaluation and adjustment throughout the project lifecycle.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
 The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement
 My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement
 In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and activities

The aim of the Arbroath Sea Pool Project is to facilitate the formation of a sea pool in Arbroath which will be free and accessible to all. This will aid in the improvement of the coast of Arbroath making the area more attractive to locals and visitors, it is hoped that this will have a knock-on effect on the whole of Arbroath.

The project will commission the appropriate bodies, to plan, design and construct the pool. To enable the project to commission these bodies, it will engage in fundraising activities. The project will apply for funding from appropriate sources and organise fund raising activities such as quiz nights.

Structure, Governance and Management

Arbroath Sea Pool Project is governed by our Constitution which is reviewed annually, and whenever the need arises.

This year there has been a reshuffling of committee members, and some leaving due to personal reasons, 4 new members joined after a recruitment drive in August 2024.

Achievement and Performance

This year the Arbroath Sea Pool has achieved the following:

Identified Preferred Site

- Began to take water samples from the preferred site to assess the water quality throughout the year, as the feasibility study highlighted some concern from the community regarding the water quality.
- Sampling Conducted at the James Hutton Institute, Aberdeen.

- Worked with the Harbor Master to deliver the water samples to the James Hutton Institute on a regular basis.
- Obtained quotes from a Architect firm Studio Octipi for the architects' costs for the project which will allow us to move forward with funding applications.
- Held open events across Angus County to recruit new volunteers.

Financial review

Arbroath Sea Pool Project currently holds £971 in its bank account.
There is no deficit.

Future plans

- Complete the analysis of the water
- Undertake further community engagement to increase awareness of the project
- Recruit new members and trustees to the Project
- Identify funding opportunities
- Apply for funding to enable the project to appoint an Architect
- Commission an Architect to design the pool
- Formulate recruitment strategy

Additional information

There is a vast amount of work required to achieve the projects aims, however the members of the Arbroath Sea Pool Project are very enthusiastic and willing, they very much look forward to see a viable busy sea pool in use by Arbroath community and those from further afield.
