Nature and purpose of funds

1. The first section of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second section outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the sampling process and the statistical techniques employed to interpret the results.

3. The third section presents the findings of the study. It shows that there is a significant correlation between the variables being measured, which supports the hypothesis of the research.

4. The fourth section discusses the implications of the findings for future research and practice. It suggests that the results could be used to inform policy decisions and improve organizational performance.

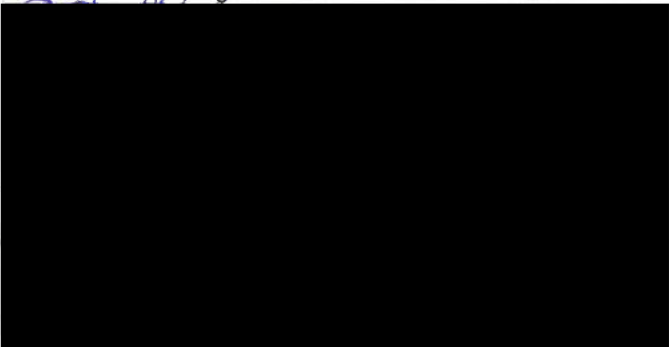

5. The fifth section concludes the document by summarizing the key points and reiterating the importance of the research.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
	1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
	2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and activities

The aim of the Arbroath Sea Pool Project is to facilitate the formation of a sea pool in Arbroath which will be free and accessible to all. This will aid in the improvement of the coast of Arbroath making the area more attractive to locals and visitors, it is hoped that this will have a knock-on effect on the whole of Arbroath.

The project will commission the appropriate bodies, to plan, design and construct the pool. To enable the project to commission these bodies, it will engage in fundraising activities. The project will apply for funding from appropriate sources and organise fund raising activities such as quiz nights.

Structure, Governance and Management

Arbroath Sea Pool Project is governed by our Constitution which is reviewed annually, and whenever the need arises.

This year there has been a reshuffling of committee members, and some leaving due to personal reasons, 4 new members joined after a recruitment drive in August 2024.

Achievement and Performance

This year the Arbroath Sea Pool has achieved the following:

Identified Preferred Site

- Began to take water samples from the preferred site to assess the water quality throughout the year, as the feasibility study highlighted some concern from the community regarding the water quality.
- Sampling Conducted at the James Hutton Institute, Aberdeen.

- Worked with the Harbor Master to deliver the water samples to the James Hutton Institute on a regular basis.
- Obtained quotes from a Architect firm Studio Octipi for the architects' costs for the project which will allow us to move forward with funding applications.
- Held open events across Angus County to recruit new volunteers.

Financial review

Arbroath Sea Pool Project currently holds £971 in its bank account.
There is no deficit.

Future plans

- Complete the analysis of the water
- Undertake further community engagement to increase awareness of the project
- Recruit new members and trustees to the Project
- Identify funding opportunities
- Apply for funding to enable the project to appoint an Architect
- Commission an Architect to design the pool
- Formulate recruitment strategy

Additional information

There is a vast amount of work required to achieve the projects aims, however the members of the Arbroath Sea Pool Project are very enthusiastic and willing, they very much look forward to see a viable busy sea pool in use by Arbroath community and those from further afield.
