Trustees' Annual Report – The Circle Learning Foundation (SC052316)
For the year ended 31 December 2024
From Professor Kirsty Thomson, Chair

This has been a year of foundation building for The Circle Learning Foundation. Since achieving registered charity status on 10 February 2023, our work has focused on developing the necessary structures, including our organisational branding, and submitting funding applications to support our future programmes. While we were unfortunately unsuccessful in securing funding this year, these efforts have been an important step in clarifying our approach and strengthening our organisational readiness.

During the year, the trustees have also worked to develop a clear long-term strategy. This forward plan sets out our priorities and underpins our vision for delivery. We are now firmly focused on 2026 as the anticipated start of our charitable work, ensuring that the organisation is fully prepared and sustainable when activities begin.

The trustees remain committed to the objectives of The Circle Learning Foundation and are grateful for the support and guidance received to date.

Professor Kirsty Thomson

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Circle Learning Foundation SCIO

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

I have been appointed as the independent examiner of The Circle Learning Foundation SCIO to carry out an examination of the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, I can confirm that:

- the accounts for the period under review are "nil" accounts (i.e., no financial transactions were recorded for the period from establishment to 31 December 2024);
 - the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the charity.
 - no material issues or concerns have come to my attention during the course of my examination.
 - in my opinion, the accounts comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

Conclusion

As there were no financial activities recorded for the year ended 31 December 2024, and based on my examination, I am satisfied that no further actions or disclosures are required in the accounts for the period.
