Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: The charity was established to support disadvantaged individuals in Glasgow by improving their health, wellbeing, and holistic education. Until recently, it remained largely dormant, aside from collaborative work with Tapa Coffee and Bakehouse. The trustees are now active, with volunteers engaged, and at the time of this report we are preparing our first funding application to the National Lottery under the Awards for All programme.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 1 The organisations purposes are the advancement of education and the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended through. 1.1 Provision of health and wellbeing education among members in the operating areas and facilitate research programmes and make the results available to the public, practitioners, and policy makers. 1.2 Promoting and/or providing training in skills of all kinds, particularly such skills as will assist Members. 1.3 Helping to relieve the suffering and distress of Members within the Operating Area suffering from mental or physical disability, distress, illness, impairment, or old age and generally to promote health issues for the benefit of members.
