Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To support individuals and/or charities with a view to preventing or relieving poverty and hardship; support other charities or institutions who advance education; provide financial and other support to entrepreneurs who may be disadvantaged by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage; support organisations in the advancement of citizenship or community development; and promote equality and diversity.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The organisation has been working hard to build relationships with local entrepreneurship support organisations including Abertay and Dundee Universities who in turn could help us to identify those eligible and in need of the funding we have available.
Our website is being developed and application forms have been drafted by the legal team to ensure compliance.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner		The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement		My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement		In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
