Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

One Day is a SCIO governed by a constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Initial trustees have been appointed with skills to establish the charity.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The organisation's purpose is the advancement of citizenship or community development through the promotion of the effectiveness or efficiency of charities by providing a simple and accessible online facility for people to donate to local charities of their choice at no cost to them or the recipient charity, and the running of promotional campaigns to encourage people to donate through the website to charities of their choice.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

One Day is in the process of developing a website and online facility for people to donate to local charities of their choice at no cost to them. One Day will run promotional campaigns to encourage people to donate through the website to charities of their choice including a campaign to donate one day's worth of earnings to local charities.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

In this second period since establishment the focus of the charity has been on developing the online facility for launch in 2026.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

One Day is still in the initial stages of developing its online facility and has no ongoing costs to run. Once these are established the trustees will determine and agree on an appropriate reserves level.

	01	June	2024	to	31	May	2025
Set out on pages	1 to 7						(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
