Achievements and performance

The SCIO was founded to transfer the old Whytes Causeway Baptist Church (Unincorporated Association) SC005860 to a new constitutional arrangement of a SCIO. The SCIO was voted into existence on 12 March 2023, and the accounts began being transferred to this charity from December 2023.

During the first six months of the financial period the church was in Ministry vacancy which allowed funds to accumulate. The health of the church during the financial period, in terms of congregational numbers was excellent and thriving through the considerable voluntary effort of those in leadership including the interim moderator, and members of the congregation. In addition, subscribers to the church YouTube channel increased to 130 along with the number of times watched, many of these in other countries indicating an extensive outreach.

Voluntary giving from the church is generous (including one legacy) and a large percentage is passed on to Christian charities working abroad including Barnabas Aid, Compassion and British Missionary Society. All of these seek to relieve poverty, provide emergency aid and implement positive actions such as education and medical training. The church also donates in a practical way through the collection of food stuffs for the local Food Bank, dried goods (Barnabas Food Gives initiative) and children's clothes to go abroad.

There has been several events to raise funds including a Strawberry Fayre and a Craft Fayre, supported by the whole church and led by the Mission Group whose main focus of support is British Missionary Society and Overseas Mission Fellowship to whom most funds go.

A Warm Welcome Space was run in the church hall through the winter by volunteers, grant aid was secured to assist with refreshments and heating costs. This was regularly attended by local residents in need.

After careful congregational consultation our Minister was appointed in March 2024 with the purpose of leading the congregation in reaching out to the local community as well as working with other local Christian organisations. The latter three months of the financial period have been a time of transition which has seen a positive increase in Membership and younger attendees as well as new volunteers.

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees for the year ended 30 June 2025

I report on the accounts of the church for the year ended 30 June 2025 which are set out on pages 5 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended) have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Building fund – represents money raised to cover the upkeep and repair of the church buildings

Sunday School – money held on behalf of the Sunday school

Craft Group – money held on behalf of the Creative Craft Collective

Future plans

Next year, we hope to stabilise the costs for the minister and continue to grow in spiritual and numerical depth.

The congregation is likely to undertake major building works due to major vandalism that was incurred in May and June 2024.

We hope to establish new patterns of worship and community outreach, by discerning the will of the congregation through both formal and informal conversations and meetings.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Whyte's Causeway Baptist Church Kirkcaldy Trust
I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended 30th June 2024 which are set out on pages 8 to 12.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities

Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
