Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Next year our charity starts providing extra curriculum classes and activities for children. This year the charity was forming and opened its account ,and started pilot volunteering online lessons. We have been looking to rent premises for in-person classes and activities from September 2024 and applied for a grant to help us cover the cost of the rent.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: 4. The charity exists to provide advancement in education and personal development for children in Scotland including bilingual children as well as adults who wish to learn languages and other subjects. Another purpose is to enrich local communities with different culture and heritage. In furtherance of these objects, the organisation will undertake following activities: a) LEC will contribute to advancement of children and adults in arts, heritage, culture, or science by providing lessons in art, mathematics, computing, heritage language and literature. Lessons variety will extend with demand in compliance with LEC purpose. Social theme events and sport days will provide opportunity for members of LEC to take part in drama, dance, competitions, singing, poem reciting and sharing heritage culture with the local society. b) English language speaking club for speakers of other languages will support integration into Scottish society for those coming to the UK and seeking support in local language skills to bring up their confidence levels in communication and further studies. c) multicultural heritage of LEC staff and the receivers of the services will promote equality and diversity for the benefits of the personal developments of the pupils as well as promote interest in multicultural society. This will help bring together different elements of different cultures. Opportunities to celebrate and share heritage and diversity will result in a more secure and stable local communities in Scotland. d) refugees, immigrants, and their local communities will benefit from the services of the charity directly through the lessons and indirectly through the interaction with the community. This will help them to integrate into local community as well as sustain their heritage and their ethnicity. This will celebrate their diversity and advance their culture within future generations and support their wellbeing. LEC education fees are affordable for low income families to allow them to preserve their heritage, culture and enhance education (6(f)). e) this will aim to support educational needs of bilingual children in Scotland as well as getting access to scientific, cultural, and other resources in the language of heritage. It will provide support and language skills for new families who are moving to Scotland, including refugees, but are struggling with English language. LEC service will be open to everyone aiming at the categories mentioned above . Lomonosov Educational Centre will also run theme related events, competitions, and exhibitions. The centre will operate on the values of the diversity, inclusivity and integrity will focus on bringing the benefits to the local community.
