Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention
 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 •to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 •to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Constitution adopted in accordance with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are appointed in accordance with the procedures set out in the CCAA SCIO Constitution. Vacancies may be advertised through community networks to encourage diversity. All newly appointed trustees receive an induction outlining their roles and responsibilities.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To advance art, heritage, and culture by organising public exhibitions, educational clubs, and cultural programmes, and by delivering presentations and performances that raise awareness of the history and traditions of diverse communities, including the intangible cultural heritage of New Scots. To promote equality and diversity by celebrating cultural heritage and encouraging community cohesion through arts, culture, and community development initiatives. These include projects that empower participation, inclusion, and capacity building as ways to tackle exclusion and support integration.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

CCAA encourages participation in cultural and artistic activities, promotes social inclusion by offering accessible creative opportunities, and strengthens community connections through shared programmes and events. Our main initiative – the ArtUnity Project – offers creative workshops, exhibitions, performances and community-engagement activities, bringing together people from different backgrounds and fostering cross-cultural collaboration.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The ArtUnity Expansion Project, which included multiple sub-projects, brought together over 700 participants in a range of art sessions, encouraging cultural exchange and skill development (e.g. painting, crafts, performance).

Inclusivity and outreach were strengthened through language-translation services and the use of accessible venues to ensure broad participation.

The charity collaborated with local community centres, schools and cultural associations, enriching programme content and extending reach.

Environmental and green activities were introduced through recycling-based creative workshops that used recyclable waste materials to produce artwork, supporting environmental awareness, artistic fulfilment and mental-health wellbeing.

Crafted sewing sessions provided hands-on opportunities for participants to develop practical skills, build confidence and connect through shared creativity.

Overall, community impact was enhanced through exhibitions and performances that showcased participants' talents and celebrated artistic expression.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

No formal reserves policy has been adopted yet, but trustees aim to maintain sufficient funds to meet immediate obligations and ensure continuity of activities.

Details of any deficit

The charity reported a net surplus of £8581 for this period.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

APPENDIX 1

Other optional information

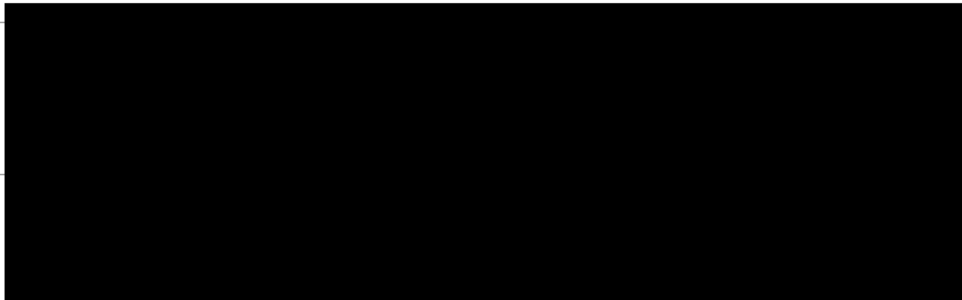

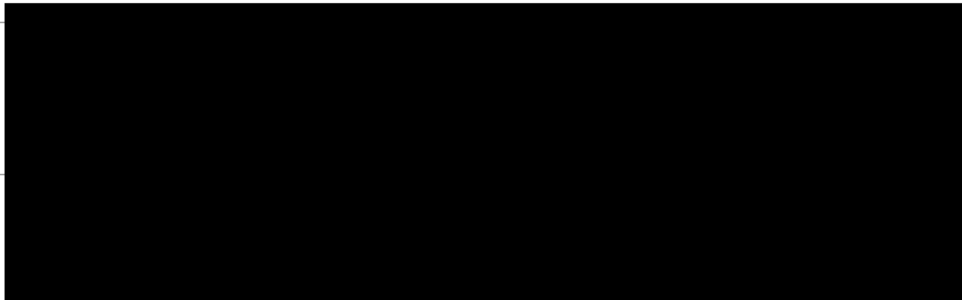

Looking ahead, we plan to:

- Expand the ArtUnity Project with new artistic forms and community-led initiatives.
- Seek additional funding sources (e.g., grants) to sustain and scale our programs.
- Formalize a reserve policy to strengthen financial resilience.
- Invest in trustee and volunteer development, focusing on governance best practices and community outreach.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
