Trustee recruitment and appointment

There has been no additional Trustees recruited this financial year.

Trustees like all other members must apply via application found on the Charity's website. Any successful applicants will then be interviewed by the current trustees, successful candidates will then be appointed by the board. External organisations are welcome to submit a request to appoint a trustee to the board

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

(a) To save lives by providing First Aid services and public events and by providing a First Response service to support the public and Door Supervisors between the hours of 6am and 6pm. (b) To advance health by supporting the physical and mental health of the public, by working alongside the Scottish Ambulance Service and providing a first response service, therefore reducing the demand to the Scottish Ambulance Service. (c) To save lives and advance health by providing welfare packages to the public to help reduce public nuisance from noise, to help prevent spiking incidents, to support safe sex and to provide footwear to reduce injury to those who choose to walk barefoot when their own

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Project Grass Roots is being used to raise funds by means of Car Boot sales, Coffee Mornings and sponsored events to provide the funding for project Green Grass. Project Green Grass will see our First Aid trained Volunteers become available for use by local organisations for events to provide First Aid Services. Project Nightingale will Launch once we have established a base of operations and a sufficient number of volunteers to form teams to be able to go out at night and help members of the general public with first aid provision.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We have continued to make enquiries into obtaining funding from various grant services, but have sadly been unsuccessful once again in this endeavour.

We have been continuously making enquiries for other fundraising opportunities.

We have obtained public liability insurance for attending events, we have had some success in raising funds via attending local car boot sales.

We have been successful in recruiting some new members and are continuing to attempt to recruit.

We have changed our correspondence address as the one in Glasgow was costing too much. We now have an address in Forfar.

We attended Angus Pride 2025 in August and provided a welfare service, providing shelter, bottles of water and the use of suntan lotion at no cost. We also did some fundraising at this event with a game for children to win prizes.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The policy is reviewed annually by our board of trustees, ensuring it remains aligned with our financial realities and strategic goals. Through careful monitoring and transparent reporting we aim to maintain the trust of our donors and stakeholders demonstrating prudent financial management and readiness to meet future needs.
