Letter from the CEO

I am delighted to present the John Sutton Community Clubs 2024 Annual Report, encapsulating a remarkable year in our journey.

As we reflect on the past year, it's evident that we've continued to evolve into a dynamic community, This has been driven by our unwavering commitment to make our activities available to 'Everybody and Anybody': from people who are beginners, suffer from disabilities or are aiming to get to the very top of their game.

Football Camps

Football Camps

- We held 4 football camps this year, usually lasting at least 5 days to provide a safe environment to develop skills and friendships.

- The camps are an opportunity for aspiring players to enhance their skills from fully qualified coaches.
- The participants vary from pro youth players to absolute beginners. Both come along for the same thing: to improve their games in a positive and friendly environment.
