Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of religion', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: RCCG Zoe Parish Greenock is set up to advance the Christian faith and serve our local community. We do this through weekly worship services, Bible study, prayer meetings, and pastoral care that nurture spiritual growth and fellowship. Alongside faith activities, we provide practical support to individuals and families facing hardship, including food and essentials. In August 2025 we secured rented premises on Westburn Street, which are being renovated to create a welcoming hub for worship and community engagement. Until completion, we continue to meet in temporary venues and run a house fellowship in Port Glasgow, which we expect to grow into a full parish plant. Through these initiatives we aim to build inclusion, relieve need, and create spaces where people can connect, thrive, and experience the love of Christ in practical ways.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The Redeemed Christian Church of God, Zoe Parish, Greenock exists for the purpose of serving and glorifying the Lord Jesus Christ by following the commands, examples, and testimony of God's Word the Bible. 4.1 The primary aim of the organisation is the advancement of religion through the promotion of the Christian Faith and its values amongst its members and the community at large. 4.2 The prevention or relief of poverty through outreach work and the provision of food and other necessities to people in need in the local community. 4.3 The provision of recreational facilities and activities through establishing a community space and delivering a range of activities what will allow families and the community, primarily in the Greenock area, to come together, enjoy fellowship and pursue a range of interests.

SCIO Constitution

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees of RCCG Zoe Parish Greenock are appointed in accordance with the charity's constitution and the governance framework of the Redeemed Christian Church of God Scotland. Trustees are recruited from members of the congregation who demonstrate commitment, integrity, and the skills necessary to support the charity's objectives. Nominations are made by the parish leadership and approved by the trustee board. All new trustees undergo an induction process covering the constitution, safeguarding responsibilities, financial oversight, and compliance requirements set by the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR). Trustees serve on a voluntary basis and act collectively in the best interests of the charity and its beneficiaries.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

RCCG Zoe Parish Greenock exists to serve and glorify Jesus Christ by advancing the Christian faith and its values among members and the wider community. Our aims are:

- Advancement of religion – promoting the Christian faith and providing opportunities for worship and fellowship.
- Relief of poverty – supporting those in need through outreach, food provision, and practical assistance.
- Community and recreation – establishing a welcoming space and delivering activities that bring families and the community together in Greenock for fellowship, support, and shared interests.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

During the year, RCCG Zoe Parish Greenock has focused on three strands of work:

- Faith and Worship – We have continued to hold weekly services, Bible studies, and prayer meetings, providing opportunities for spiritual growth and fellowship for our congregation and the wider community.
- Community Support – Through outreach initiatives, we have offered practical help to individuals and families facing hardship, including the distribution of food and essential items. These efforts have strengthened our role as a source of care and compassion in Greenock.
- Fellowship and Engagement – With the acquisition of our premises on Westburn Street, we are developing a welcoming hub for community activities. Alongside this, our house fellowship in Port Glasgow has created new opportunities for families and neighbours to come together, enjoy fellowship, and build lasting connections.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During the financial period, RCCG Zoe Parish Greenock has:

- Secured our first premises on Westburn Street, Greenock in August 2025, a significant milestone for a parish only 2½ years old.
- Commenced renovation works to transform the building into a welcoming worship and community hub.
- Expanded outreach through the Port Glasgow house fellowship, laying the foundation for a future parish plant.
- Strengthened worship and fellowship activities, with steady growth in attendance and participation across services, Bible studies, and prayer meetings.
- Enhanced community support, providing food and practical assistance to individuals and families in need.
- Built organisational credibility, embedding governance, safeguarding, and compliance frameworks to ensure sustainability and replicability.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees' policy is to maintain a level of reserves sufficient to ensure the charity can continue its core activities in the event of unforeseen circumstances or fluctuations in income. Given the parish's recent establishment and ongoing investment in its new premises, reserves are currently modest.

As income grows, the trustees intend to build reserves equivalent to at least three months' operating costs, providing stability while ensuring that funds are primarily directed towards charitable activities and community benefit.

Independent Examiners Report

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Redeemed Christian Church of God – Zoe Parish, Greenock (SC052837)

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2025 which are set out on the pages attached.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply.

It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
