Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The structure of the organisation consists of the Board who hold regular meetings, and generally control the activities of the organisation. The Scottish Charities Act requires certain decisions to be taken by the charity trustees in their capacity as members of the organisation. Under the provisions of the Kirkcudbright Community Church constitution, no-one can be a member unless they are also a charity Trustee of the organisation; and if anyone ceases for any reason to be a charity Trustee of the organisation, they automatically cease to be a member.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The reserves policy for Kirkcudbright Community Church is to aim to hold at least 12 months' general income as cash reserves. This is in addition to any fixed assets that may be held and used for the church's aims and purposes. This level of reserves should ensure that at any time of the year the Church is not required to borrow funds on overdraft from its bankers. Any additional reserves are generated with a view to fund longer-term projects.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
