Activities

---

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Meetings and activities are tailored to girls 14-18. A common programme framework is followed which offers activities for girls to experience across six general areas: health and wellbeing, creative expression, taking social action, having adventures, skills for living, self-awareness. The method for delivery consistently uses five essential ingredients: the programme is varied and balanced, girls work together in small groups, they are encouraged to be self-governing and to be involved in decision making, all must care for the individual and there is a shared commitment to a common standard which encourages proactive citizenship.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: Promoting the instruction of girls of all classes in the principles of discipline, loyalty and good citizenship.

Geography

---

- Main operating location: City of Edinburgh
- Geographical spread: A specific local point, community or neighbourhood

Independent examiners Report
For the year end 30 June 2025

For 1st Summerhall Rangers

Charity Number: SC053089

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiners Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiners Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
