Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: The charity exists to create spaces where people can come together through music, worship and community. We support and encourage people of all backgrounds to explore faith, find hope, and experience connection through modern worship. We do this by running monthly worship nights, offering training for those who want to grow in confidence as musicians or worship leaders, writing and recording original songs, and taking part in community-based outreach. Our aim is to equip and inspire people, strengthen local churches, and use worship music to bring encouragement and support to individuals and communities.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

During the year, the charity continued to work towards its purposes of advancing the Christian faith and providing relief to those in need through worship, mission, teaching, and community outreach. Our activities were centred on the belief that Christian worship and music play a significant role in spiritual growth, community building, and supporting those experiencing personal, emotional or spiritual need.

A core strand of our work has been the provision of monthly worship nights, offering three hours of corporate worship, prayer, and ministry. These gatherings provide a consistent opportunity for individuals and communities to come together, experience Christian worship, receive spiritual support, and engage in fellowship. Attendance has remained strong throughout the year, with between 150 and 175 people regularly participating each month.

To further equip the wider church, we have delivered training and development opportunities for emerging and existing worship leaders. This includes the Modern Day Levite training, which focuses on biblical principles of worship leadership, the call to serve as modern-day Levites, and practical teaching on leading worship within a church or missional context. This training is designed to develop skills, deepen theological understanding, and strengthen the capacity of local churches across the UK and beyond.

The charity has also focused on writing, recording and producing Christian music for the purpose of resourcing churches and promoting Christian teaching through song. Our songwriting and recording activities are an important means of advancing the Christian faith, providing both worship material and theological reflection accessible to congregations and individuals.

Mission and outreach remain central to our work. The charity has undertaken missional outreach activities, using worship and music to fulfil the Great Commission by sharing the Christian message in community settings. This includes participating in and leading public expressions of worship and evangelism that engage people outside traditional church settings.

The charity also engages in partnership work, collaborating with churches, Christian organisations and ministries to expand the reach and impact of our activities. These partnerships help us strengthen worship practices within the wider Christian community and extend support to those seeking spiritual encouragement or experiencing need.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

This year has been a period of significant development and growth for the charity, both in terms of ministry impact and organisational capacity.

Our monthly worship nights continued to grow, consistently attracting 150–175 attendees. These gatherings have become a recognised place for worship, prayer, and spiritual support, helping many individuals find encouragement, community and pastoral care through music and ministry. Feedback from participants indicates that these events play a meaningful role in strengthening spiritual wellbeing.

We successfully delivered the Modern Day Levite training, equipping worship leaders with both theological understanding and practical skills for leading worship. This programme has contributed to the development of worship ministries across multiple churches and supported individuals responding to a call to serve in Christian worship.

A significant achievement this year was our partnership with The SEND Scotland, through which the charity led nine locality worship events across the nation. These events, combining worship with street evangelism, were part of a wider movement aimed at mobilising young people for mission. Our involvement enabled the message of Christian hope to reach new audiences, and strengthened the charity's role in nationwide mission and outreach.

In the area of music production, the charity entered into a formal partnership with Integrity Music, one of Europe's leading Christian music distributors. This partnership enabled the writing, recording and production of a full album, due for release next year. Despite this partnership, The Revelation Room has retained full ownership of its music publishing rights, maintaining independence and long-term sustainability.

Financially, the charity strengthened its position through successful fundraising and grant support. We secured a £5,000 grant from the McClelland Trust, specifically for the development and delivery of our worship nights. We also increased our base of regular support, with nine monthly supporters contributing small but consistent gifts. In addition, three substantial one-off donations enabled the purchase of all necessary sound, technical and catering equipment, allowing the charity to operate at minimal ongoing cost. As a result, the charity now owns its essential equipment outright and is able to run events without reliance on external hires.

The charity also received invitations to lead worship at events across Scotland and beyond, demonstrating growing recognition of our ministry and enabling us to reach wider church communities with our mission.

Overall, the year has seen the charity strengthen its activities in worship, training, music production, and mission, significantly furthering its charitable purposes and expanding its capacity to serve churches and communities.
