Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the promotion of religious or racial harmony', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: Aramsei Charity is established to deliver public benefit through direct charitable activities and targeted grant support. Its objects focus on education, health, wellbeing, and community cohesion, with practical and measurable outcomes. While grants are made where appropriate, Aramsei operates primarily as a volunteer-led organisation. Volunteers and trustees based in the UK and India are directly involved in planning and supervising activities, enabling flexibility while maintaining oversight. Grant funding is used selectively where it best supports charitable aims. Activities include community engagement and fundraising initiatives, such as community kitchen participation and sponsored charity events in England and Scotland. Activities take place in the UK and India. Each project is overseen by a volunteer lead and a trustee. All income and expenditure are recorded and reviewed by the trustee board. Funding comes from trustee, volunteer, and public donations.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisation's purposes are: a) Supporting Local NHS Fundraising: Contribute to the local NHS through fundraising initiatives, ensuring access to quality healthcare services for our community. b) Promoting Education: Make education accessible locally and globally, with a particular focus on less privileged and deserving people. c) Clean Water and Sanitization: Ensure access to clean water and improved sanitation for people in need, contributing to the well-being of the community. d) Natural and Environmental Disaster Relief: Provide timely assistance and relief to communities affected by natural and environmental disasters, aiding in their recovery and rebuilding efforts. e) Emergency Community Support: Offer vital support to communities during times of crisis, with a focus on immediate needs such as shelter, food, and medical care. f) Cultural Integration and Support: Assist communities in merging with UK culture, fostering cultural exchange, understanding, and inclusion. g) Environmental Conservation for Future Generations: Dedicate efforts to safeguard the environment, ensuring a sustainable and healthy planet for the benefit of future generations.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

In its first year, Aramsei Charity was inaugurated and its website launched.
 The charity strengthened Tamil language education by adding two new teachers to support over 18 students and introduced new Mazzhai entry-level classes, attracting five new students through the Aramsei Tamil Virtual Academy.
 Aramsei members actively supported the Lothian community through participation and financial contributions to 'Our Community Kitchen' initiative.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity’s policy on reserves

The Trustees have adopted a reserves policy for the first time. Reserves are defined as unrestricted funds freely available for the Charity’s general purposes. The Trustees aim to hold reserves equivalent to approximately 3 months of operating costs to provide financial stability and manage risk. The policy and level of reserves will be reviewed annually.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
 The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement
 My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement
 In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention ~~[other than that disclosed on the attached page*]~~

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
