Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: We collect donations of food and cash and provide food parcels for those in need in our community.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The organisations purposes are. (a) To provide those in financial hardship with essentials such as nutritionally balanced emergency food, personal hygiene materials and cleaning items. (b) To prevent those in need who are referred to the foodbank in crisis, irrespective of age, gender, orientation, ethnicity, religion, ill health, disability, financial or other disadvantages from falling further into poverty. (c) To remove barriers for those in need by working in partnership with local organisations and by providing donations and information sessions.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Foodbank is governed by a constitution. It has a Franchise Agreement with the Trussell Trust, and as a SCIO it meets the requirements of the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR). The Board is made up the charity trustees. The Foodbank also has Members who have the power to appoint Board members and change the constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The minimum number of Trustees is three and the maximum number is five. At each AGM, the Trustees retire and are then re-elected unless they or the Board of Trustees request otherwise. The Trustees at the date of this report and those who have served during the year are shown on page one.

The Trustees have implemented a policy on induction and training prior to new Trustees being approached. This includes awareness of a Trustee's responsibilities, the governing document and administrative procedures.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

1. To provide those in financial hardship with essentials such as nutritionally balanced emergency food, personal hygiene materials and cleaning items.
2. To prevent those in need who are referred to the foodbank in crisis, irrespective of age, gender, orientation, ethnicity, religion, ill health, disability, financial or other disadvantages from falling further into poverty.
3. To remove barriers for those in need by working in partnership with local organisations and by providing donations and information sessions.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Foodbank accepts donations from local organisations and the general public, and opens two days a week to issue food parcels to service users who are referred by partner organisations.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The foodbank was previously known as Clyde, Avon and Nethan Foodbank and has been in operation since 2012. Its finances were overseen by Trinity Parish Church Larkhall (SC008611) in whose grounds the foodbank operated. The Church, however, closed in 2025. In anticipation of this, the Foodbank was set up as an independent SCIO on 28/03/24. New trustees were appointed and a new constitution created. One of the trustees of the new Foodbank, David Miller, was previously a trustee of Trinity Parish Church. None of the other trustees had a connection with Trinity Parish Church. The Foodbank operates under the auspices of the Trussell Trust and this arrangement continued with the completion of a new Franchise Agreement in October 2024.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Financial Reserves Policy

It is the trustees' policy to hold reserves of no less than twelve months' expenditure. Apart from a small amount of petty cash, all monies are held in an account in the Bank of Scotland, Larkhall. At the time of setting up the foodbank, approximately £70,000 was held. This is more than will usually be held in reserve, because of the need to plan for the future accommodation of the Foodbank.

Details of any deficit

N/A

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Trinity Parish Church Larkhall donated the use of its premises for the year.

APPENDIX 1

Other optional information

Financial Controls Policy

The treasurer and foodbank manager each hold a debit card for small transactions. Receipts are retained and all transactions are recorded. Large payments are made by cheque. The treasurer and two trustees are authorized signatories, and cheques must be signed by two of them.

The financial year runs to the end of March. Accounts are prepared by the treasurer and approved by the trustees and independent financial adviser, according to the requirements of OSCR.

The principal source of income is donations from companies and individuals. Cash donations are banked immediately and no cash is left in the foodbank. Confidential records are kept of individual donations, and donors are asked to complete Gift Aid forms if appropriate. At the end of each tax year, a claim is made to HMRC for the refund of Gift Aid.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
