Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: CEDAR was formed in response to the threatened closure of Crawford village hall. The charity is situated in an upland rural area of southern Scotland and consists of two small villages Crawford and Elvanfoot, the hamlets of Camps and Daer and surrounding areas down to the border of Dumfries and Galloway. CEDAR was formed to Save the Hall and became a charity in order to take their plans forward. The Community Council realised there was more needed to bring people together and support Rural Living. CEDAR is a community-led Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation working to support the wellbeing, resilience and sustainability of the Crawford, Elvanfoot and Daer area. Its purposes are to advance community development by securing and improving local assets, reducing rural isolation, supporting access to services and activities, and creating opportunities for local people to come together, improve wellbeing and strengthen community life.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The Organisation's main purpose is consistent with furthering the achievement of sustainable development. The Organisation's Purposes are: To advance rural regeneration and community development within the Community so that it can be a sustainable, inclusive community for all who live or work in the area and to safeguard community resources. To inclusively promote and support initiatives to improve the health and wellbeing of the community. To promote the conservation, protection, and improvement of the physical and natural environment. To encourage access to open spaces and enhance recreational opportunities. To advance heritage, culture, history, arts, and science. To promote, establish, operate and/or support other similar schemes and projects of a charitable nature for the benefit of the Community.
