Governance: Centrum Edukacyjne Razem (Educational Centre - Together) SCIO
Constitution set up on April 2024.

The charity is managed by its board of trustees, who meet regularly.

Charitable Purposes:

According to its Constitution, the charity is established to advance the arts, heritage and culture by developing and supporting projects that celebrate and promote the Polish language and Polish cultural heritage within the multicultural environment of Scotland and beyond. In addition, the charity aims to advance education through the teaching and promotion of Polish as both a heritage and a foreign language.

Main Activities:

The charity did not commence its activities during the reporting period due to the unexpected late withdrawal of our previous venue, which chose not to renew the agreement. We are currently in the process of securing a suitable new location. Qualified teachers and interested families remain ready to participate, and we intend to begin activities once an appropriate venue is confirmed.

Financial Review:

Independent Examiner's Report to the Centrum Edukacyjne Razem (Educational Centre - Together) (SCIO) for the period ended 31st March 2025.

I report on the accounts set out on pages 1 - 2.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner:

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement:

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement:

In the course of my examination no matter has come to my attention which:

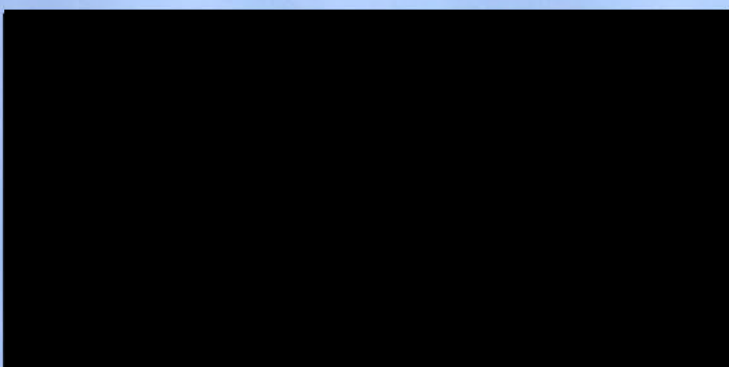

1. Gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

a) To keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and;

b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations.

have not been met, or

2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
