STRUCTURE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Structure and Governing Document

Golf Chaplaincy Scotland was registered as a charity on 23 July 2024 in the form of a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation with the charity number SC053528. Golf Chaplaincy Scotland is governed by a constitution which clearly sets out its purposes and how the Charity is to be administered by the Trustees.

Trustees

The Trustees who served from incorporation and throughout the period are noted below. The Trustees are responsible for the governance, supervision and defining the strategy and objectives of Golf Chaplaincy Scotland. The Trustees also have principal responsibility for finance, fundraising, policies and procedures, risk management and contractual obligations. The Trustees engage regularly to fulfil their duties.

The Constitution permits the appointment of up to 7 Trustees and requires a minimum of 3 Trustees. At the year-end and throughout the period, 3 Trustees held office.

Trustees come from a variety of backgrounds and experience with the expectation that they will evidence their commitment Golf Chaplaincy Scotland through setting aside sufficient time to participate in regular Trustees meetings in the use of the skills for the benefit of the Charity. The appointment of new Trustees is the responsibility of the existing Trustees.

Risk Management

The Trustees have examined the major strategic and operational risks which Golf Chaplaincy Scotland faces and confirms that adequate systems and controls are in place to mitigate such risks. Matters relating to risk management are addressed at meetings of the Trustees and local Leadership.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE FOR THE PERIOD ENDED 31 December 2025

Aims

The charitable purposes of Golf Chaplaincy Scotland as set out in the Constitution is the advancement of the Christian faith

We want to create an environment where individuals can come together through their shared love for golf, while also nurturing spiritual growth and fellowship.

We adopted a Mission Statement:

To integrate the principles of faith, fellowship, and sportsmanship within the golfing community of Scotland. By providing avenues for camaraderie, spiritual support, and personal growth, we endeavour to enrich the lives of both golf enthusiasts and seekers of spiritual fulfilment.

We plan to work this out through the following activities

- Establishing chaplaincy services in golf clubs across Scotland, fostering a supportive environment for members.
- Regular communication and engagement with clubs through emails, promoting fellowship and spiritual encouragement.
- Organising an annual Golf Day, promoting unity and community among golfers.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Golf Chaplaincy Scotland

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025 which are set out on pages 5 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charities trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than disclosed below)

1. which gives me reasonable causes to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met. or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
