Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of public participation in sport','the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Deliver organised football programmes for children, young people and adults to increase participation in sport and improve physical and mental wellbeing across the community. Provide inclusive, accessible and affordable recreational opportunities, ensuring barriers to participation are removed for those from disadvantaged or underrepresented groups. Develop players, coaches and volunteers through structured training, education and community engagement initiatives that promote lifelong involvement in sport. Facilitate community-based activities, partnerships and events that strengthen social connections and improve quality of life in Kirkliston, South Queensferry and surrounding areas. Promote equality, diversity and fair treatment in all club activities, ensuring a safe, positive and inclusive environment for all participants regardless of background or ability.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The Club's purposes are: 5.1 the advancement of public participation in sport to improve the health and wellbeing of a wide range of participants, in particular in the sport of football. 5.2 the provision of recreational facilities and organised sporting pursuits to improve the well-being and conditions of life for the community in Kirkliston, South Queensferry and the surrounding area, through participation in sport and social activities in furtherance of these objects. and 5.3 to ensure equality of opportunity and fair treatment of all people involved in sport, regardless of gender, pregnancy and maternity, gender reassignment, disability, race (including ethnic background, nationality or colour), marital or civil partnership status, age, sexual orientation, religion or belief, social background or ability.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention: - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or - to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
